Parent-Teacher Meeting

A treat is in store for Estacada people in the coming this week of Mrs. Robt. H. Tate of Portland, to speak before the Parent-teacher Association. Mrs. Tate is a woman of national reputation, at present chairman of the National Child-welfare Commission of the Parent-teacher Association, and has been for several years a member of the Child Welfare Commission in our own state. Her topic is "The Children's Sunday". Every person interested in children should hear Mrs. Tate at the high school auditorium Friday, Jan. 18, at 7:30 o'clock.
