During the discussion of the various appropriations at the late County Budget Meeting, considerable criticism was aimed at the heavy expense of the Justice Courts, amounting to $2,000.

Investigation shows that this department is not self-supporting from fines and costs, but a decided economy can be effected, if such saving is really desired.

It has been the custom in too many cases in the Estacada Court and probably is in other outlying justice courts, for the district attorney or his assistant to take the cases before the Justice of the Peace at Oregon City, instead of having them tried in the locality in which they originate.

This procedure means a heavy added expense in costs and time, for mileage for witnesses etc. - when if the district attorney or his assistant would travel to the outlying courts, it would merely mean the expense and mileage of the officer, instead of all parties interested in the case.

Let's see District Attorney Hedges or Tom Burke appear before the outlying courts, instead of insisting that the case and the parties thereto be brought before them.

Few Local Boys in Class One

A review of the published list of classifications so far announced by the Clackamas county board, in connection with the questionnaires reveals but a few boys of this community in the first division.

This condition is probably due to the large number of young men from this portion of the county, who had enlisted prior to the drafts.

Some of the early classifications published have since been changed, with several local men formerly designated as being in Class 4, now being in the first division.

Among those in the first division from this section are: James C. Kiggins, Henry Boyer, Milton Evans, Robert A. King and Harry Reid of Estacada; Albert Hoyguard of Cazadero and Frank Marshall of George.

There will be a masquerade dance at the Garfield Country Club on Saturday evening, Jan. 19, to which all are invited.

Walter Givens of Estacada, after a two weeks absence at Coberg, Oregon, where he has been conducting successful revival services, returned home the first of the week.

Alien Registration to Include
Photos and Finger Prints

The week of February 4th has been designated for the registration of the half million or more un-naturalized Germans in this country, with the work handled by the police departments and post-masters.

Registration will involve the gathering of detailed information concerning the business, relatives and habits of every German, together with photographs and finger print records.

The idea is not that every German is looked upon by the government with suspicion, but to classify and systematize the alien population. Women and all persons under 14 years of age, are not classed as alien enemies by law.

Red Cross Benefit Nets $30.

Mrs. A. E. Sparks of the Estacada Family Theatre, who Monday evening, gave a benefit moving picture performance for the local Red Cross organization, on Tuesday handed to Mrs. M. H. Evans the treasurer, the sum of $30. Mrs. Sparks having merely deducted the actual expenses for the films, express charges etc, amounting to about $12.

The show was a good one and the house was packed with people from all sections, many of whom refused to accept change in payment of their admission.

The Clackamas County School Teachers' Assn. will meet all day, Saturday the 19th, at the Oregon City High School.

HENRY GITHENS, Currinsville.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilcox of Estacada on Saturday, January 12, a daughter.

Under the chaperonage of his teacher, Miss Ursula Johnson, Victor Adix of Estacada celebrated his 13th birthday last Saturday evening with a party to a number of his boy friends. Games and good things to eat constituted the evening's enjoyment.

A. N. Johnson, ex-postmaster of Estacada, who a few months ago returned east to handle the sales of a patented specialty, arrived in Estacada last week, apparently preferring the rains of Oregon to the ice and snow of the middle west.

Mrs. J. B. Thayer of Portland spent the week-end at the home of her friend, Mrs. W. O. Bumgardner of Estacada.
