

What Do We Do For You

Do you know what a bank will do for you?

First, it is convenient to pay bills by check; then it is safer than carrying or hiding money. A cancelled check is never disputed as a receipt.

It establishes your credit to use a bank as reference.

These are only a few of the things a bank will do for you if you will open an account.

ROBERT N. STANFIELD

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for United States Senator from Oregon.

The principles upon which I stand and to which I pledge myself are:

1. To support the national administration and the heads of the government with all my ability and energy in the speedy and vigorous prosecution of the war to a peace satisfactory to the democracy of the world and compatible with the highest ideals of our civilization.
2. To the application of the selective draft in practice as well as theory, which shall insure organization of the national army and at the same time reserve the necessary labor and supplies for the continuation of our industrial pursuits and commerce.
3. To an equitable control and regulation of food supplies, commerce and industry, and the establishment of a primary market in Portland on equal basis with Chicago and eastern ports.
4. To a nation-wide prohibition and to all measures which shall make it practicable and operative and not theoretical.
5. To permanently establish equal suffrage in both state and nation.
6. To establishment by the federal government of a naval base at the mouth of the Columbia River.
7. To effective rural credit legislation and administration with a particular view to its adaptability to the needs of Oregon.
8. To construction by the federal government of a military highway along the Pacific Coast, and federal aid in the construction of permanent highways.
9. To see that Oregon participates, all things being equal, in national trade, commerce and industry, and that our state is given recognition in the federal expenditures made necessary by the war.

10. To legislation which shall bring to a settlement the public lands question, and the greater development of Oregon's natural resources including the development of water power, reclamation of arid, swamp and logged off lands.

11. To the organization and mobilization of all our industrial forces, with a just and proper consideration of the rights of labor, which shall guarantee coordination of American efforts during the war.

12. To legislation that will permit the natural resources of the great West and Alaska to be used, at the same time being careful that those natural resources are used economically.

13. To the removal of the misunderstanding and opposition on the part of the federal authorities which has restricted Oregon's commercial expansion and retarded her industrial development.

14. To the development of Oregon's great shipping ports, through federal improvement of waterways and harbors; the maintenance of a merchant marine on the Pacific Ocean, and a just recognition on the part of the federal government of the importance, value, commercial and industrial advantage of Oregon's location, situation and harbor, and shipping facilities.

15. To a policy of conservation and reconstruction which shall insure our national integrity, honor and commerce and the moral and civic purity of our people.

16. To have that high regard and consideration for the interests and progress of humanity and the nation at large, which is typified by a conscientious and moral observance of true Christian civilization.

If you have not received the full and complete copy of my platform and principles write me at Stanfield, Oregon.

R. N. Stanfield.

Walter Givens of Estacada has been asked to give a thirty minute talk on the subject of "Trade Acceptances from the Standpoint of the Country Dealer" before the convention of the Oregon Hardware & Implement Dealers' Association, which meets January 22nd to 25th in Portland. Mr. Givens a few months ago, gave a similar speech before the State Retail Grocers Association, which was appreciated by all—consequently this request for a repetition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Saling of Currinsville entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening at a delightful dinner party.
