warrant it.

As to the support which will be given R. N. Stanfield in his candidacy for the U. S. Senatorship, Eastern Clackamas should return an almost solid vote, not only because he is a true Oregonian, standing for the best interests of the state and the northwest, but in recognition of his services to the Cascade County movement, which as speaker of the house in the last legislature, he exercised to the utmost in our behalf.

We hope that it can never be said that Eastern Clackamas voters failed to show due appreciation for favors received, but we are not a bit ashamed if the home voters revert to primal instincts and work for revenge against certain others, who materially aided in the defeat of the home county in this section, during the past campaign.
