BOOSTING SPIRIT

Vol. 2 No. 4

February 14, 1918

Estacada, Oregon

WHETHER RAIN OR SHINE
Bring your basket and call at our
HOOVER
Counter

which will be featured at our store again on Friday, Saturday and Monday

REAL BARGAINS always prevail on this counter and U can't afford to overlook them

Of Course at the prices articles are sold on this counter, you wouldn't ask us to wrap or deliver them or sell for other than cash. Just do like hundreds did last week, grab the old market basket and the purse, come in and load up, then SMILE as you figure how much you have saved. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Keep the Hens and Pullets

The United States Food Administrator has ruled that we can buy no more Hens or Pullets until after April 30th, and we will abide by this ruling. During the interval we will continue to buy all other poultry not under this ban, for which we will pay the usual top prices.

Bring us your eggs. Last week when the market weakened so rapidly we continued to pay the very top prices and as a result we handled over fifty cases. It will always pay you to get our prices no matter what you have to sell.

Feed

Is mighty scarce and hard to get, but we are doing the very best that we possibly can to keep on hand the best substitutes for mill feeds until such time as our car from Walla Walla arrives. We are expecting it every day.

Our car of eastern corn arrived on schedule time and as we go to press is almost entirely cleaned up.

SPECIAL NOTE BY THE NEWS' EDITOR

As Givens happened to have a little extra space in his advertisement and as we happened to have a little more news than our reading columns would hold, we are printing same in the space below, but trust that no one will tell Givens that we swiped a piece of his page:

C. R. Lovell of Currinsville did his bit last week in the presentation to the Estacada Red Cross Auxiliary of a heater and a supply of fuel.

Mrs. Chas. E. Dubois of Estacada left for a Portland hospital Wednesday, where she will undergo an operation.

Mrs. Sherman Kilgore and children of Springwater, after an absence of several months at the home of her parents in Brooklyn, N. Y., returned home Wednesday.
