W. A. Bletch of Portland, formerly of Springwater, who lately recovered from the effects of a dose of poison, on his release from the hospital at once enlisted, first disposing of his Ford car to Harry Keeney formerly of Springwater.

Otto Jansen of George, after school hours, is learning the intricacies of the banking business, under the tutelage of Cashier Lasswell of the Estacada State Bank.

Russell Reed of Estacada and Vernie Duus of Garfield, having completed the course in automobile mechanics and received their diplomas from the Sweeney Auto School of Kansas City, returned home last week, with Russell now working in the Estacada Garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Woods of Portland were guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells of Estacada, attending the dance Saturday evening, later being guests at the Well's home, where an after dance luncheon was enjoyed by a few friends.

Ralph Reid of the 18th Engineers, in service Somewhere in France, sent New Years greetings to a number of his friends here, consisting of a folder containing a photo of the company captain. Ralph says, "Let us hope hostilities end early this year and of course we must bring home the bacon."

E. B. Watt and family of Portland are expecting to move to Garfield this week, where they have rented the Deming and Miles Standish properties, making their home in the Dunlop house nearby.

The dance given Saturday evening at the Hotel Estacada by the Estacada Tennis Club was an enjoyable one, with a number of Portland guests present.

Funds Growing

As a starter for the local tobacco and candy funds, now being collected throughout this community, for the benefit of our own enlisted boys, the News this week deposited $6.59, being a donation received from a former resident of this section, who wished to do his bit for the home boys.

Parents or others intending to send boxes to the enlisted men are asked to call at the News office and get a contribution from these funds. Also the business men, in whose places the funds are being collected, are asked to keep this office informed of the amount of donations on hand.

Editor Wants Legislative Job

Accompanying the picture shown below, Gordon J. Taylor, editor of the Molalla Pioneer says - "For some time I have had the foolish notion of making a run as one of the three state representatives of this county. I am sending under separate cover a column cut, which I fear will not be a vote getter, but the photographer is not to blame for that. I sincerely hope I will come out of the campaign with more friends than I have when I go into it, as I value these friendships as the most valuable thing in life."

The candidacy of Mr. Taylor should meet with the approval of Eastern Clackamas voters, if for no other reason than his not being a county seat politician. Furthermore, Mr. Taylor being an editor, with previous training in the ministry, should assure his honesty and uprightness and his familiarity with the needs of this county, especially from the farmer's standpoint should make him a valuable representative.
