A patriotic meeting was held at the school March 2nd, being called by the committee in charge of the sale of War Saving and Thrift Stamps, resulting in a promising outlook from this district.

Miss Eleanor Bews, teacher of the Dover school, pleasantly surprised her pupils with the presentation to each of a Thrift Stamp and card.

Arthur Evans, who has been in the sheep business in Idaho, has returned to Dover where he will spend the Spring and Summer with his father.

A. J. Morrison handled the cream hauling in this district Thursday in place of Chas. Updegrave, who was sick.

Presbyterian Elders Meet

With Dr. Montgomery, Moderator of the Portland Prebytery, presiding, the Elders and Trustees of the Springwater, Eagle Creek and George Presbyterian Churches held a meeting at the home of J. C. Peterson in Estacada, Tuesday evening, where matters pertaining to the welfare of the denomination in this community were discussed.

A Red Cross Auxiliary was organized Thursday with residents of Elwood and Colton uniting. The officers chosen were; Pres. Mrs. Blanche Elliott; Secy. Mrs. Elsie Putz; Treas. Mrs. Della Valen. The auxiliary is to meet at the home of Mrs. G. Gottberg, March 9th, to "tie a comfort" which they wish to sell to raise a fund for the buying of material for "our boys."

Mrs. Ed Hodgkiss of Elwood has returned to work at Kenton and Mr. Hodgkiss and son are leaving shortly for the same place, where he expects to obtain work.

Press Howell of Barton claims to be some livestock raiser and his past record for heavyweight stock proves it. Press' latest record is a two year old Holstein bull, which now weighs 1350 pounds.

Mrs. W. W. Dillon of Garfield has lately received a number of letters from her husband, who is now in France in charge of one of the Army Y. M. C. A. camps. These letters were written enroute across the Atlantic and pay high tribute to the soldier boys who showed no signs of fear during the trip through the danger zone. Mr. Dillon personally was too busy trying to ward off seasickness at times to care whether he was torpedoed or not.

Mrs. Sam Barr of Estacada left this week for American Lake, where she will reside near her husband until such time as his company is transferred elsewhere.

Mrs. Ed Cornell and daughter of Portland were week-end guests at the Adix home in Estacada, Mrs. Cornell attending the Tennis Club dance Saturday evening.

Parties intending to send boxes to enlisted boys from this community are reminded of the supplies of candy and tobacco now on hand in the various Estacada and rural store funds.

Mrs. Charles Dabois of Estacada returned home Saturday, after a two week's stay in a Portland hospital, where she successfully underwent an operation.

John Dunseath who is employed in the printing and newspaper business at Dallas, Oregon spent the week-end at his home near Estacada.

Locals from Lower Eagle Creek

A number of the farmers from this neighborhood attended the sale and demonstration in Estacada last Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Cahill is now on the mend and her daughter Grace is once more attending E. H. S., although it was thought at first she would not be able to resume school until Fall.

Mrs. C. F. Howe of Estacada attended the Red Cross meeting in Eagle Creek last Friday.

Peter DePaeppe has recently rented his farm and is arranging for a public sale of his stock, implements and household goods to take place March 16th. Mr. DePaeppe expects to make his future home in Portland.

Alfred Miller of Portland was a guest of his aunt Mrs. Ballou, last Sunday.
