KULTUR

By G. S. O. Humbert, Eugene, Oregon.

K is for Kaiser, whose will is to rule
An empire universal, the dream of a fool.
U is for Universe, an expression of God;
Who'll chasten the Kaiser by using the rod.
L is for Lawlessness, lust and for loot;
A mastering spirit, civilization's uproot.
T is for Tyrants, the German war lords,
Who battle with conscience, while leading the hordes.

U is for Uselessness, false hope for power;
Expressed in destruction, the Hun's charm devour.
R is for righteousness, the reign of the right;
An alien in Prussia and martyred by night.

Pray what is this Kultur, the hope of the race,
Extended by cannon, by demons embraced?
Hark! Listen in silence, while innocents weep—
God's spirit will answer, as He sees Kultur reap.

'Tis the work of the Zeppelin, the havoc of shell,
Expended on innocence by the powers of Hell.
'Tis fire-flame and gas-flame, camouflage and disease

Starvation of millions, U-boats of the seas.

'Tis hypocrisy in diplomacy, cunning use of God's gold,

Internal dissensions, wolf's work in the fold.

'Tis Von Treitschke, and Nitsche, Bernhardi and all
The Prussian's inspiration, and later his fall.

'Tis the last blow at Liberty, Mars' final retreat;
Autocracy's death-throes, war's exit—DEFEAT.

A new world has risen, Christ's triumph begun,
His spirit will lead men—world brotherhood come.
