The state-wide, house-to house thrift campaign has been postponed from the week of March 5, to March 19th to 23rd.

This campaign is not to be a drive for money.

It is to be a campaign of education. A campaign to tell every Oregon householder just what Thrift Stamps are, what War Savings Stamps are, where they can be bought, and why they should be bought.

Ten thousand volunteer workers will strive to plant a thrift germ in every home in Oregon. The germ will do the rest.

With the financial difficulties of the Estacada Boy Scout Corps a thing of the past, thanks to the generous response to their Tag Day sales—we would suggest that the scouts do a little real scouting and locate the boy or boys in Estacada, who are now passing through an unmoral development, resulting in the scribbling of filthy words and pictures about town.

Contrary to reports that had been current in this section, to the effect that F. B. Guthrie, former principal of the Estacada Schools, was one of the survivors of the recent Tuscania disaster, Mrs. Guthrie writes from Salem that he is located in the Y. M. C. A. work at San Antonio, Texas.

Under the direction of Supervisor L. J. Palmateer, road work is now underway in Garfield district No. 49, with gravel being hauled by truck from Estacada and being worked into the bad spots on the main road in that district.

Chaffeurs and Truck Drivers Wanted

Through the office of the Adjutant General, a call is being made for young men qualified as expert automobile or truck drivers, for enlistment in the army work.

Oregon's quota for this work is 100 and must be raised by Friday, March 8th. Preliminary training will be given all volunteers at San Antonio, Texas, with the men later being sent to France, where General Pershing needs chaffeurs and motor truck drivers.

The regular monthly dance of the Estacada Tennis Club, held at the Hotel Estacada, Saturday, was an enjoyable affair.

The War Advertising Committee of Oregon has requested that the following slogans be given publicity during the month of March, in the interests of a "Silence Campaign—Against the Spreading of Rumor, Conjecture and Hearsay."

Our Enemies Over Here Are Trying to Hurt Our Boys Over There. Our Enemies Are Listening, Don't Talk.

If you know anything Germany would like to know, let this be your Speechless Day.

Germans—their agents and sympathizers—are trying to overhear you. Keep Quiet! Don't talk!

Keep—Your eyes peeled, Your lips sealed, Your heart steeled. Your idle prattle may lose a battle. Don't tell all you know.

One German Army has already occupied America. The invisible host of Spies is everywhere.

Swat the fly! Spot the Spy! Spies feed on little crumbs of conversation, little glances of observation. Starve them out!

Benedict Arnold was an American Officer trusted and loved by George Washington. Three cowboys caught the spy whose papers exposed Arnold. Keep your eyes open. Report suspicious persons who ask curious questions.

It is rumored the Kaiser is making a special lot of Iron Crosses for Americans who help him by careless talk. Have you qualified yet for your Iron Cross?

Don't tell all you know to people you don't.

A word to the Spies is Sufficient. Don't tell all you know.

Naval Enlistments Again Opened

Enlistment in the naval service has been reopened at the U. S. Naval Training Camp, Seattle and any citizen between the ages of 18 and 35 is eligible.

Recruits will receive a thorough course of four months naval instruction. This camp is considered one of the best training quarters in the country, located on the grounds of the University of Washington, with the facilities of that institution available, together with the U. S. S. Princeton for a training ship.

Among the out-of-town visitors in Estacada on Auction Day, were three prominent newspaper publishers, namely E. E. Brodie of the Oregon City Enterprise; C. W. Robey of the Oregon City Courier and G. J. Taylor of the Molalla Pioneer. These visitors were much pleased with the community spirit shown during the sale and came to obtain suggestions for similar affairs for their own communities.

Our Service, the best we know how;
Our prices, are not all to the bad,
Then why not give us your trade now?"

And to please you we aim.
While our prices compete
With others, just the same."
