The Palace Market

Estacada Or. J. C. Hillman, Propr.

is now under new management, handling both Portland and local meats, at prices based on a fair business profit.

The demands of the business today make it necessary that all accounts be paid on the 1st and 15th of each month, as the Portland dealers extend but ten days credit and the local seller of livestock expects cash for his offerings.

Fresh Fish Tuesdays and Fridays

Anglers desiring salmon eggs are asked to order two days in advance.

Dr. George W. Morrow of Michigan gave a lecture in the school auditorium Wednesday evening, his subject being "Over the top for a Dry America." The lecture was a forceful one and of interest to the audience.

Dr. Dubach of the Extension Dept. of the O. A. C. will lecture at the high school Friday evening, the 8th. All are invited to enjoy this lecture as it will be well worth hearing.

Last Friday was "Rough-Neck-Day", with all students coming to school attired in the most ridiculous costumes obtainable. That afternoon a mock-trial was held, in which Ernest Smith, the defendant, was fined 86c to treat the jury and ten days hard labor on the sidewalks around the school.

The E. H. S. basketball team will travel to Portland Friday, where they will tackle their old rivals, James-John High School and hope to put up a stiff fight.

Friday evening a high school stepping party was given by Warren McWillis in the Odd Fellows' Hall, with some dancers appearing in their rough-neck costumes.

A resume of the grade records for the present school season show Miss Anderson's room as having the highest attendance percentage, namely 97.9%. Mrs. Boswell's room the greatest number neither absent nor tardy, namely 19 and Miss Anderson's room having been visited by the largest number of parents, namely 16.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson of Eagle Creek, Mrs. Edw. Shearer of Garfield and Mrs. Frank Ewing of Viola were delegates last Saturday from this community, attending the session of the Women's Council at Oregon City.

The basket-social given by the Deep Creek School Saturday night was well attended, with many Barton and Boring people present. The proceeds of $33.45 will go towards the Red Cross and the school.

R. C. Deming of Estacada who last week made a business trip to the coast and valley towns, is this week on a similar trip to Tacoma and other Washington points.

The News is this week in receipt of a censored letter from Harold Youny of Barton, former E. H. S. student and now a member of Company H., 162nd U.S. Infantry. The letter comes from Somewhere in England and reports him "fine and quite comfortably fixed". He also says "We have only been getting our mail for about a week, but in that time I have received four numbers of the News and they were certainly good reading".

Ralph Davis, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis of Garfield last Saturday took a fall while playing on the grass near the Grange Hall, resulting in a badly broken leg. The break, which was an oblique one, just above the ankle, was set by Dr. Adix, with the patient now getting along finely.

At The Family Theatre

Thursday, March 14th—Vivian Martin will be seen in the feature film, "Giving Becky A Chance."

Saturday, March 9th—The feature film will be "The Orphan" with Ella Hall in the leading part. A good comedy and a Ford Weekly will also appear on this bill.

In the celebration of the 40th birthday of D. L. Erdman of Deep Creek, a party was given on Sunday, with about thirty friends wishing him many happy returns of the day.
