New County Newspaper

Last week saw the initial publication of a new county newspaper, called the Clackamas County Banner, being the successor to the Oswego Times, with the new publication making its home and being printed at Oregon City.

We extend the publishers a welcome and our heart-felt sympathy and wish them success in their efforts to compete against a couple of first class weeklies and a daily paper, now being published at the county seat.

County Teachers To Meet At Clackamas

All day Saturday, March 23rd will be given over by the Clackamas County Teachers' Assn. to their regular meeting, which convenes at the Clackamas School at 10 A. M.

An attractive program has been arranged, with Hon H. G. Starkweather of Oregon City, Democratic candidate for the nomination for governor and Prof. M. S. Pittman of Monmouth, as the principal speakers.

Cascade Garage To Handle Buick Cars

Through an agreement entered into last Saturday between Robert Jonsrud of Kelso, Eastern Clackamas agent for the Buick automobiles, and J. C. Peterson of the Cascade Garage of Estacada, the local firm will now act as sales agents for the celebrated Buick Six in this community.

O. A. Pace, well known county seat business man and member of the Oregon City school board, has formally announced his candidacy at the primary election, May 17th, for the nomination for sheriff of Clackamas County on the republican ticket.

Mr. Pace has been a resident of this county for ten years, having been in the grocery business in Oregon City for most of that time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lasswell of Bend spent the week-end at the home of their son, A. L. Lasswell of Estacada.

Estacada Boys Arrive Safely In Europe

J. V. Barr of Estacada was last week in receipt of a letter from his son Warren, dated from "somewhere on the other side", announcing his safe arrival in port. He reports his company-mate Fred Bannister of Estacada as having arrived O. K. too, after suffering from a few days sea-sickness.

John's Looking For Chickens

Marshal John Page of Estacada has requested that the public be informed that on and after April 1st next, all stray fowls found about the town are liable to be impounded.

This precaution is being taken to protect the gardens, especially the war-gardens, which will soon be sprouting in the vacant lots, and it is hoped no poultry owners will object to conforming to this necessary and sensible ruling.

Ed Boner of Estacada has graduated from the amateur class as a photographer, with his work now being the equal of many men of years more experience. It is well worth one's time to look through Mr. Boner's album of snap-shots of people and places in this community and his post-cards of current events are in steady demand, with the high school students regular purchasers of his views of school activities.

Tom Carter of Garfield, after working in Portland for the winter, has returned home and expects to continue his work in the Forestry Service during the coming season.

A baby boy was born March 15th to Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Gillotti of Eagle Creek.

Ken Bartlett of the 91st Div. Hospital Unit, stationed at Camp Lewis, spent the week-end at the parental home in Estacada.

Lieut. Wm. Dale of Estacada, spent the week-end at the home of his parents.

Wm. Still of Eagle Creek, in a letter to the News from Waco, Texas, describes in detail the work in the aeroplane service and his part in the program. He reports Texas as having few rains, but when it does rain, "it has Oregon faded off the map." Bill sends many thanks for his copy of the News and sends regards to all friends at home.

The Viola Red Cross now has forty members and in the past month has made and shipped to headquarters over one thousand pieces of work, comprising bandages, socks, comfort pillows and the other articles needed by the organization.
