Record and Declaration of Principles of

WILL R. KING

Candidate for the Democratic Nomination for United States Senator from Oregon

Born, Walla Walla, Washington, October 3, 1864.

Moved to Oregon, 1872. Has been continuously domiciled in Oregon at all times since.

Education: Public schools; three years at Oregon Agricultural College; complete course in law school, Danville, Indiana, with degree of LL. B.

Representative in Oregon Legislature from Malheur County, 1892-1894.

Senator in Oregon Legislature, Baker and Malheur Counties, 1894-1898.

Candidate for Governor, 1898, running ahead of party ticket.

Member Supreme Court of Oregon, 1907 to 1911.

Delegate to Democratic National Convention, Baltimore, that nominated President Wilson. Selected by President Wilson as one of his national campaign managers in 1912.

Delegate to Democratic National Convention, at St. Louis, that nominated President Wilson for second term.

Appointed May, 1913, as Chief Consul, United States Reclamation Service, and has been in continuous service in that capacity since that time.

Has never sent a telegram approving attacks upon the administration of President Wilson, nor in any manner has failed to support the President completely and without reservation.

Is not seeking the Democratic nomination for the announced purpose of electing a Republican as United States Senator.

In such negative record Judge King's position is in contradiction to that of his primary opponent.

"If nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, unreservedly support President Wilson's war aims, and the administration in the reconstruction necessary after war for a greater democracy, industrially and politically. Am for development of Oregon's unlimited resources; the protection of human and property rights, human rights first; for the best in the world for the boys in the trenches; and through federal aid for reclamation of all arid, swamp and logged-off lands, and for good roads and the improvement of the national parks.

"My record in legislature, on bench, and in reclamation service guarantees my promises."

COUNTY CLERK

If You Want Experience and Efficiency.

Here is what J. H. Wilson, expert accountant, says:

"The County Clerk's office is conducted with rigid exactitude. Miss Harrington, and her Chief Deputy, MR. MILLER, are about as correct as they can well be. That is to say, exactly correct, and it is a great pleasure to audit in an office conducted as this Clerk's office has been."

No. On Ballot 64.

An Apology

If there seems to be a preponderance of political advertising in this issue, we ask that the readers forgive us this time, for the candidates wanted to reach the voters and the voters should know what the politicians have to say and as for the publisher, we needed the money.
