

Show Nets Red Cross About $60

The attendance at the special Red Cross benefit performance at the Estacada Family Theatre Monday evening, was the largest ever assembled in that house, with the overflow extending on to the sidewalks.

The feature film, "The Man Without A Country" was the main attraction, with the special dramatic feature by the high school students being well applauded.

Over $80. was taken in at the door, the majority of which will go to the work of the local Red Cross, the bare expenses of the performance being deducted by Mrs. A. E. Sparks, the manager of the theatre and sponsor for the show.

There will be preaching services Saturday evening, May 18th at 7:30 o'clock at the Estacada Church of Christ, conducted by Evangelist R. P. Williams. Services will also be held at 11 o'clock Sunday.

An enjoyable day was spent at the W. Domm home at Eagle Creek Falls last Sunday, when Mrs. Domm and son Victor were agreeably surprised by a visit from Minnesota friends whom they had not seen for twenty-five years, being Mr. Harry Dewitt and daughter. Among the other guests were Miss Amanda Klaetsch and brothers Gust and Herman of Portland. Mr. Dewitt had the pleasure of landing a couple of big steel-heads at the Falls, under the guidance of Vic Domm.
