When you're on the lookout for submarines, a chew of Real Gravely helps to pass the long, dark hours.

Whether He's Fighting on Sea or Land Send him a pouch of Real GRAVELY Chewing Plug

If he doesn't chew yet, he'll slice it up and mix it with his pipe tobacco to give it flavor and improve his smoke.

You will send your friend more tobacco comfort and satisfaction in one pouch of Real Gravely Plug than in half a dozen plugs of ordinary tobacco.

Give any man a chew of Real Gravely Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best!

Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravely, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELY

Dealers all around here carry it in 10c. pouches.
A 3c. stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Seaport of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c. stamp will take it to him. Your dealer will supply envelope and give you official directions how to address it.

Corp. Womer Sends Thanks

Corp. Chester Womer, of Estacada, now with the American Expeditionary Forces, in a letter to the News of date of April 19th, wishes to express his heartfelt thanks to the many friends at home who have contributed the good things contained in the numerous boxes which he has received.

He says all boxes are divided among his fellow soldiers and while he regrets the recent postal ruling prohibiting the sending of more such welcome gifts, he and the boys are willing to get along without them, if "it will help lick the Kaiser."

The News office is still handicapped by the continued illness of Miss Elna Hoygaard of Cazadero, who is suffering from the effects of a severe attack of measles.

Ray Eshelman, of Estacada, who last week was in a Portland hospital suffering from an accident, was brought home Saturday, where he is fast regaining his strength.

One of the famous, popular C.
I. C. dances, which a few years ago were social features of this community, will be given at the Estacada Pavilion on Saturday night, May 25th. The dancing floor at the pavilion has lately been put into fine condition and with the ladies serving one of their delightful mid-night suppers and with music by a new Portland jazz orchestra, a good time is assured. Admission will be $1. for the gentlemen.

Portland called on local friends Saturday, prior to their sailing for Australia on the schooner Thistle, of which he is the Captain.

Ernest E. Vallen of this place, who has been principal of the Oakesdale, Washington school was notified last week to report at once at Washington, D. C., where he has been appointed to a position as clerk in the office of Chief Signal Officer. Mr Vallen made a flying trip home, leaving Monday for his new post. During his absence, his wife will aid in the handling of his school.
