

Lend Your Money As Freely As They Are Giving Their Lives

You don't have to fight, you don't have to die.

But—

Your son does, or your brother who is now across the way—or the kid now in khaki to whom you used to give pennies a short time ago.

That money you have laid away for "a rainy day"—wouldn't you give every nickle of it to keep a Hun's knife away from his throat?

Well, the Hun is here, and so is his knife—and so is the "rainy day"—it's raining now, raining bombs and schrapnel upon our boys "over there."

June 28th National War Savings Day

On that day the nation will call upon you, not just your neighbor—but you—to pledge yourself to the purchase of a certain number of War Savings Stamps during 1918.

Lend your money as freely as they are giving their lives.

Ferguson Reappointed District Fire Warden

John W. Ferguson of Portland, who is well known in this part of Clackamas County, where he made his headquarters in former years, was last week reappointed fire warden by State Forester Elliott for the counties of Clackamas and Marion.

Mr. Ferguson has been in charge of the work for several weeks and is making his headquarters near Molalla, as a central point.

Work is still continuing in the re-gravelling of the Springwater Hill road, with many teams from that district hauling gravel from the cars at Estacada.

The household goods of the Fred Jorg family of Estacada were last week shipped to Portland, where they will make their home and where Mr. Jorg has been engaged in saddle-making for several months past.

Lieut. Wm. M. Dale of Camp Lewis spent Sunday at the parental home in Estacada.

Last Sunday was a day that will always remain a treasured remembrance to Mrs. C. Rawlins, aged mother of Ben Rawlins of Garfield, who was tendered a birthday picnic-party at the Garfield Country Club. One hundred and five relatives and friends joined in the festivities, which included a sumptuous dinner, with the tables decorated in roses, smilax and other flowers. Mrs. Rawlins, whose 78th birthday occurred on the Monday following, was wished many happy returns of the day.

J. J. Marchbank is now visiting among relatives in Estacada, having last week sold his recently acquired acreage property near Haley Station. Mr. Marchbank will remain in Estacada for a few days prior to returning to eastern Oregon.

John C. Peterson of Estacada is now able to be about, following an operation for the fracture of his shoulder bones, resulting from an auto accident of a few weeks ago.

S. P. Pesznecker of Estacada last week completed a deal, whereby he has taken the agency for this and two adjoining counties for the sale of the "Kays-Pitman Rod" which is a new invention, doing away with the breaking of sickle bars and bolts in mowing machines and binders.

Milton Evans and E. W. Bartlett of Estacada were on the sick list for a few days this week, both suffering from the grippe.

Draft Boards To Correct Classification Errors

A "Class I Week" is to be held sometime this month by every local draft board in Oregon, according to information and orders from the office of the Adjutant General.

The purpose of "Class I Week" is to correct any errors in classifications that may have been made previously. In correcting these errors, many registrants previously placed in lower classifications will be transferred to Class I.

At the same time, the re-classifications will work both ways. Where the evidence justifies, local boards will re-open the cases of men wrongfully placed in Class I and place them in lower classifications, as the circumstances warrant.

Government Appeal Agents and members of legal advisory boards have been directed immediately to make a careful examination of all questionnaires and records in all cases in which they are satisfied that re-classification should be made. Thousands of registrants are now Class IV, the War Department believes, who should be in Class II or Class I. Appeal agents are instructed to appeal every case where the re-classification is not convincingly correct.

New standards of physical examination are being issued by the Provost Marshal General. These will, it is believed, not merely add to the number of men eligible for military service but will largely increase the roster of those held for limited or special service.
