

Bank Has New Steel Safe

The patrons of the Estacada State Bank, will be glad to know that a Quadruple Manganese Steel safe of the latest style, is installed in the vault of that institution and is guaranteed to be absolutely burglar and fire proof. It will be used for cash only and is fitted with time lock and other devices to make the safeguarding of funds absolutely secure.

This kind is used by all the leading and progressive banks throughout the country, and its installation means that the management of the bank intends to give our citizens a completely up to date service. The manufacture is by Mosler of Hamilton, Ohio.

C. F. Howe and son are visiting at Pasco, Wash., with his brother whom he has not met since 1891.

Mrs. Dora Cleveland from Grants Pass, was a week-end visitor at the Howe home. She was a delegate to the W. R. Corps at the Portland encampment.

This office was favored with a call Friday morning, from Henry W. Koehler of Oswego. Mr. Koehler is the democratic nominee for sheriff, and was here on business connected with his candidacy.

Mrs. Mary Bartholomew of Heppner, Oregon is making an extended visit at the homes of her son and daughters, Fred Bartholomew of Estacada, Mrs. E. E. and Mrs. C. C. Saling of Currinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Park of Estacada accompanied by Messrs. Monroe, Crissell and Yerger of Portland spent Sunday in the huckleberry patch near the old cattle camp. The party returned with 35 gallons of fine fruit.

Mrs. E. H. McCollister and sons, Richard and Robert, of Portland, returned home Monday from their visit to the Simpsons. Mrs. McCollister has recently received the appointment of dean of the Lincoln High School.

A letter from a nurse in the Naval Hospital at Portsmouth Va., gives the information that it is being enlarged to accommodate three thousand patients. Some of the wounded from overseas, have already arrived there. Many of these are without arms or legs, but so cheerful at being back in the homeland once again.

The Portland Sellwood Evaporating Company is desirous of purchasing all the prunes in this vicinity. They want them ripe and ready to dry, and will do the drying themselves, thus saving the grower a great deal of tiresome work. They will pay top-notch prices for first grade fruit. See their advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

The thistle appeals to the Scotchman, because it is his national flower. The thistle appeals to the artist's aesthetic sense. The thistle when young appeals to the palate of the burro or donkey. But outside of the above it is considered an unmitigated nuisance and is banned by law. Not far from the News office there is a vigorous patch of them which is scattering its down far and wide. We would respectfully suggest that this crop is now ripe unto the harvest that it should be reaped without delay, and like the tares in the parable be gathered together for burning.
