

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

School begins next Monday.

Faculty meeting Saturday, Sept. 7th, 10 a. m.

Enrollment at the High School has begun. Several pupils are already placed in their courses and anxious to get to work.

Worth Randolph and Lewis Jones both of '18 have joined the Student Army Reserve at Reed College. While John Shenk joins at U. of O.

Miss DeVore, commercial teacher, was in Estacada over Sunday. She is attending Behnke-Walker college in Portland for a few weeks in further preparation for her work.

All students who expect to enter school are earnestly requested to present themselves for registration next Monday, even if they cannot take up their work at once. We would like to have their names and the date upon which they expect to begin work, so we can make the necessary arrangements for books and supplies. If unable to come in person, enrollment by mail will be taken care of and the blanks sent for the purpose.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Theodore Reid of Portland, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Guy Wilcox recently.

D. M. Marshall and wife of Estacada, were over this way Sunday attending church.

Mrs. Julia Richey was calling on her sister, Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Moehnke of Shuebel, were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Roy Douglass last week.

Malcolm Woodle and family of Troutdale, were visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle, Sunday.

The farmers of this section are at last through threshing, and several people have been to the huckle berry patch and returned.

Guy Porter, an Adventist minister from the east, was recently in the neighborhood, and preached at the school house while here.

Mrs. N. L. Kirchen and children, of Logan, and J. C. Duus, Mrs. Kirchen's father, visited with Mrs. Walter Douglass Sunday afternoon.

Miss Della Sweeny and Paul Raney, of Stevenson, Wash., were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Will Douglass last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodle are contemplating a trip to Salem and Nehalem to visit their daughters Miss Nettie and Mrs. Mary Pogue. Will leave sometime during the week.

Enemy Women Take Notice

United States Marshal, G. F. Alexander, received instructions from the Attorney General of the United States calling attention of German alien females to the following important requirement, governing the change of residence of German alien females.

A German alien woman changing her place of residence to another place within the same registration district shall immediately report such change to the registration officer of the registration district and present to such registration officer her registration card for the purpose of having endorsed thereon by such registration official the change of residence.

A German alien female who desires to change her place of residence to a place of residence within another registration district must obtain a permit. Such German alien female must present herself to the registration officer of the district in which she resides and make application for the permit on a form supplied by the registration officer, and present her registration card to the registration officer for the purpose of having the permit of change of residence endorsed upon her registration card.

A change of residence in violation of the regulations subjects an alien enemy, among other penalties, to arrest and detention for the period of the war.

The registration officers who acted in the registration will continue to act as registration officers for the purpose stated in respect to permits for change of residence.

We are indebted for the following verses to A. W. Botkin of Garfield, whose nephew now in France wrote them in a recent letter.

"Mrs. Malone And The Censor"

By Edgar A. Guest.

When Mrs. Malone got a letter from Pat,
She started to read it aloud in her flat.
"Dear Mary", it started, "I can't tell you much,
I'm somewhere in France and I'm fightin' the Dutch,
I'm chockin' wid news that I'd like to relate,
But it's little a soldier's permitted to state.
Do ye mind Red McPhee — well, he fell in a ditch
An' busted an arm — but I can't tell ye which.

An Paddy O'Hara was caught in a flame
An' rescued by—Faith, I can't tell ye his name.
Last night I woke up wid a terrible pain,
I thought for a while it would drive me insane.
Oh, the suff'rin I had was dreadful to bear:
I'm sorry, my dear, but I can't tell ye where.
The doctor he gave me a pill, but I find
It's contrary to rules to disclose here the kind.

I've been to the dentist and had a tooth out,
I'm sorry to leave you so shrouded in doubt
But the best I can say is that one tooth is gone.
The Censor won't let me inform ye which one.
I met a young fellow who knows ye right well,
An' ye know him too, but his name I can't tell.
He is Irish, red-headed, an' there with th' blarney.
His folks once knew your folks back home in Killarney."

"BY GORRY", said Mrs. Malone in her flat,
"It's hard to make sense out av writin' like that.
But I'll give him as good as he sends, that I will."
So she went right to work with her ink well an' quill,
And she wrote, "I ye're dead eager for news,
You know when ye left we were buyin' the shoes:
Well, the baby has come, and we're both dotn' Well
It's a ——— Oh, but that's somethin' they won't let me tell."
