Automobile Turns Turtle

S. E. Wooster and J. W. Reed driving to Portland Friday morning, and were about a mile and a half from town on the Currinsville road, when they overtook H. C. Stephens.

Mr. Reed wished to pass the latter but as he turned his car to go by, the steering gear balked with the result that the car turned turtle, pinning both him and Mr. Wooster under it. Mr. Stephens on seeing the accident stopped and went to their rescue, and with other help managed to release them.

Mr. Wooster was badly cut about the neck head and shoulders, and bruised on arms and legs. He was brought to town where Dr. Adix rendered first aid. He rested a while in bed but got up during the afternoon and conducted business as usual.

Mr. Reed though shaken was not seriously hurt and was able to proceed to Portland, but in another car.
