The News next week will be a day late in publication, owing to Thursday being Thanksgiving Day. The editor extends his best wishes to his readers for a joyful observance of the day. One cause for gratitude which he has this year, is the cordial reception which has been accorded him and his wife by this community.

While at the depot Saturday afternoon waiting for the train, the editor noticed in the warehouse a shipment of twenty-one boxes of Jonathan apples, consigned to Portland, by A. W. Bot'in of Garfield. Unfortunately they were nailed down so securely he was not able to procure a sample to test the quality, but however he knows this was O. K.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Moore were in Portland Friday, returning on Saturday.

Edward Shearer of Garfield, went to Portland Friday, returning on Saturday.

Ed. Boner has taken a photograph of the High School service flag and has printed it in post-card form. It makes an attractive souvenir.

J. C. Hillman has just installed at the Palace Meat Market a Hobart Electric Meat Chopper of the latest model. This is for the making of Hamburger, Veal Loaf and sausage. Customers can see the entire process while they are waiting for their order to be filled, and thus be assured as to its perfectly sanitary condition.

President Wilson's Thanksgiving Proclamation is a dignified document. In it he strikes a high note which is maintained throughout. It is peace as the great triumph of right which has come to us, and with it the advent of a new era, a new day, a new hope, new and greater duties. These are the things for which we should give especial thanks, and also seek divine guidance that we may perform them right.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The next football game will be with Gresham on the Estacada grounds, Friday Nov. 22, at 3 o'clock. The basketball season will open with the Adelpic-Websterian game Dec. 6th.

Estacada schools opened, Monday Nov. 18th, with full attendance. Half holiday vacation will be given up and half an hour added to each day as a study period in order to make up the work. The lessons will also have to be lengthened slightly, but in such a way that no hardship will be worked in any case.

The school authorities have placed an order for the Victor Animatograph Model No. II to show motion pictures for community and school use. The machine will be installed at the High School and the entertainments will be of a combined educational and amusement nature. It will likely be two weeks before we can hope to receive returns from our order, and as soon thereafter as possible the first entertainment will be given. The student body will assist in the operation of the machine and in furnishing entertainment, the proceeds will go toward paying for the outfit and later will go to other forms of school improvement.

The parents should plan to meet with the teachers meeting at Estacada, Sat., November 23, 1918.

Dear Teacher you will have much war work to do this year, so it is highly important that you take advantage of this opportunity to get some real first hand information on war activities. Please arrange to come. Don't forget the date.

Very truly yours,
J. B. Calavan.

Mammoth Spuds

In the News window will be seen an exhibit of some potatoes of unusual size. They average one and a half pounds in weight and the longer specimens eleven inches in length. They are a white variety and were raised by J. W. Marrs of Dodge.

We were not able to ascertain their name but were informed that they are the result of careful selection on the part of Mr. Marrs. We look forward to testing their baking qualities. The exhibit attracts a good deal of attention and has been photographed by Warren MacWillis.
