Joe Cahill is reported being on his way home.

Miss Olive Morrel of Portland accompanied by Mr. Floyd Wayson of Detroit, Mich., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks, Sunday.

Chris. Klinker from George was in town Saturday and called at this office for the commendable purpose of renewing his subscription. There are others whom we hope will follow his good example.

W. M. Ware who bought the Epperson place in Garfield about a month ago, and has been moving on to it, was joined by his family last Saturday evening. They came here from Colorado. Real estate deal was put through by S. E. Wooster.

Mrs. R. M. Standish with Peggy and John Hubbard, went to Portland Friday, the children returning the following day, but Mrs. Standish stopped till Sunday evening. Mr. Standish was unable to get away for the week end last week.

The meeting Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at Boring to see what can be done about securing a paving plant for this part of the county, should be well attended. Eastern Clackamas is entitled to have some of this work and the sooner a start is made the better.

We publish in this and the next issue of the News the Clackamas county budget for 1919. The county commissioners this year have published it in more papers throughout the county than heretofore, in order that the widest publicity may be given it.

The Rev. T. B. Ford, D. D., of Oregon City and District Superintendent visited the M. E. Church here last Friday to hold quarterly conference. Purely routine work was transacted and the Dr. left that night. He said he hoped to preach here the next time he came.

Lieut. Frank L. Lilburn was in town Saturday visiting his sister Mrs. L. A. Wells and nephew L. A. Wells, Jr. He has just received his discharge and was on his way home at Roseburg, from Washington, D. C., where he had been employed in the quartermaster-general's department.

Services at the Christian Church next Sunday, Dec. 15th will be as follows: Bible School 10:00 a. m., Preaching 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. W. A. Wilson, of Portland. Morning subject "The Church and What it Stands For." Evening "The Field, the Worker, and the Workers." A cordial welcome to all.

Word was received on November 11, that Walter VanCuren had arrived safely in France.

Robert Morton arrived Friday evening from Riverside, Cal., where he had been in training in an aviation camp. He has received his discharge and expects to return to his old position with the Northwest Steel Company of Portland.

The Secretary of War has requested the Postmaster General to issue instructions that no mail will be accepted by any post office in the United States for dispatch to A. E. F. without the return of the sender in the upper left hand corner of the envelope.

We are featuring the Red Cross in this issue, a society which well deserves universal support. It must not be supposed that it confines its activities solely to war time. But whenever there is an emergency call for aid it responds, as for instance in case of disaster from earthquake, fire or flood. Every adult should take out a membership and renew it each year. In this way the Red Cross will be always equipped to afford immediate aid, when the occasion arises.

The Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Simpson returned to Estacada Saturday night. They had been in Portland for about two weeks packing up their household goods preparatory to having them moved here. It will be little time before they have these settled in their home, but when this is done, they will be very comfortably and cozily situated and can look forward to taking their ease under their own vine and fig tree.

M. E. Church

There will be services both morning and evening next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 10:00 a. m., Young People's Meeting at 6:30 p. m. Everyone cordially invited to attend these services.
J. F. Dunlop, Pastor.
