Important Real Estate Sale

On Monday S. E. Wooster concluded an important real estate deal for Mrs. Mattie Berg. This consisted of the sale of an 101½ acre farm known as the Stokes farm, to William Salzvedel of Heppner in the eastern part of the state. The consideration was $12,000. The new owner will move with his family on to the place within the next ten days.

Mr. Wooster informs us that he has another important deal pending and that he has received several letters of inquiry concerning real estate in this vicinity. This is very encouraging and indicates a revival in business and the herald of a coming prosperous new year.

AID GAS HEROES.

On the roof of the Pavilion Bellevue, near St. Cloud, is a most interesting hospital for soldiers who have been "gassed." The Pavilion Bellevue is the former home of Isadora Duncan and is in charge of the American Red Cross.

Lieut. Wilfred H. Day of Niagara Falls, N. Y., is in charge of this hospital, which treats only those who have been gassed, and is the first hospital of its kind to be established. Lieutenant Day has visited every country that was in the war, except Bulgaria and Turkey, and has worked in each one. During a recent visit to Worcester, England, he was received by the Lord Mayor and honored because of his work, and the Queen of Roumania conferred honor upon him, commending him for his work among the wounded and destitute of her country.
