

LOCAL BREVITIES AND NEWS ITEMS

Fred Bartholemew went to Buhl, Idaho, last week with a carload of cattle.

Miss Morrison of the high school faculty went to Portland Saturday for the week-end.

Miss Rachel Deardorff left for Portland Sunday afternoon to attend Miss Decker's business college.

Miss Elizabeth Reid was a week-end visitor from Portland, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reid of Garfield.

W. P. Ferrell of Boring has sold his large Holstein bull. It was only 2 years and 10 months old and weighed 2,020 lbs. This was the animal that injured him last summer.

Attention is called to our special club offer of the Portland Evening Telegram and the NEWS for one year for only $4.75, a saving of $1.75 on the two. Also our special offer for envelopes printed with your return address. These offers are good only for 30 days.

The old adage that you never miss the water till the well runs dry was exemplified Monday morning, when the town woke up to find the water shut off. Fortunately Jupiter Pluvius was at hand to relieve the situation, and pans, tubs and pails were put out under eave spouts to catch the gentle rain from heaven.

Whatever Your Question; be it the pronunciation of a new name the spelling of a puzzling word, the location of Flanders the meaning of futurism, airsick, Diesel engine WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY contains a clear, accurate, final answer. It is an indispensable self-help to success. Hundreds of thousands of people in all walks of life use, profit from, and enjoy this vast fund of information. Are You Equipped to Win? The only dictionary with the new divided page, characterized "A Stroke of Genius." Type matter is equivalent to that of a 15-volume encyclopedia. REGULAR and INDIA-PAPER Editions. WRITE for Specimen Pages, Illustrations, etc. FREE, a set of pocket maps if you mention this paper. G. & C. MERRIAM CO., Springfield, Mass., U. S. A. Over 400,000 Words Defined 2700 Pages 6000 Illustrations

F. H. Wold of Portland is helping at the Estacada State Bank this week.

Mrs. C. W. Clark of Portland who has been visiting in this vicinity returned to her home Saturday.

The date of last Sunday was rather remarkable, being made up of three nineteens in succession, namely, January 19, 1919,

Hot Lake the famous health resort of Eastern Oregon, has nothing on Estacada. Sufferers from rheumatism can have mud baths in their own homes.

A Mr. Carlson from Gresham who has a furniture and undertaking establishment at that place, was in town Friday on business.

Ed. Boner was called to St. Cloud, Minnesota, Friday on account of the serious illness of an aunt. While he is away his store is being looked after by Grace and Clyde Denny.

The cause of the shutting off of the water Monday, was the clogging up of the intake pipe with mud and debris, Marshall Lovelace managed to clear it out sufficiently so that the water ran, by the middle of the afternoon, but it took another day to complete the job.

Herbert Dunlop has had more than his share of trouble lately. First he suffered much from a swelling on his eyebrow, then when that let up, an ulcerated tooth got in its work. This now having been extracted Herbert is himself again. The boy showed considerable grit, in that he did not complain but kept a stiff upper lip during the ordeal.

The rural mail carriers now do not leave until after the morning mail has arrived, orders from Washington to that effect having been received. This will be a great boon to the rural public besides to the carriers as they do not have to start out so early in the morning as formerly. Now if the 9 p. m. train should be restored and the 6 p. m. taken off everyone round here would be satisfied.

Mrs. A. O. Whitcomb, of Estacada was a visitor on January 14th at the big exhibit of Southern California products maintained free to the public in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. She also attended the lectures and moving pictures that are a part of the daily program. The exhibit is the largest of any in the country maintained by a commercial organization. Before returning home, Mrs. Whitcomb expects to visit several of the many other places of interest in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Whitcomb have returned to Portland from California, and will be there for an indefinite time. Their address is 316 Oregon Bldg.

Chaplain Walter Givens arrived Monday, from Fort Worden, Wash., on a short furlough. He is looking very fit and reports that the flu epidemic has almost entirely subsided in that camp,

We hear that Milton Evans has been sent to the base hospital at Camp Fremont, Palo Alto, California, but we have not learned the nature of his illness. He landed at Norfolk, Va., about Christmas from France.

R. E. Scott editor of the County Agriculturalist paid us a pleasant call Monday afternoon. He was here to see Banker Stevens about distributing account books among the farmers, which have been drawn up for their special use.

Mrs. R. C. Deming heard from her husband last week. He is still in France going through a little drilling and otherwise marking time, until orders come to pack up and start for the good old U. S. A. He is stationed at Dijon near Paris. This is the town for which that most beautiful of tea roses, the Gloire de Dijon, was named.

The funeral of the late Frank P. Couse took place today (Thursday) at Mt. Scott cemetery, under the auspices of the Estacada masonic lodge. The P. R. L. & P. Co. furnished a car free of charge, for the masons here and friends to attend.

Fourth Liberty Loan Report

Clackamas county contributed $619,500 to the grand total of $38,392,350 of the Fourth Liberty Loan in Oregon. The number of subscribers in the county was 5,755. The oversubscription was 26.13 per cent. These figures have just been received from the State Headquarters. The official compilations do not show the quota of non-banking centers.

In the newspapers outside of Portland 87,384 column inches of space was used in paid and free publicity in aid of the loan.

The following is a statement of the communities of this county:

Table with 4 columns: Community, Quota, Subscribed, No. Sub. Rows include Canby, Estacada, Milwaukie, Molalla, Oregon City, Sandy, and Wilsonville.

ESTACADA STATE BANK The Home Bank THE BANK THAT OFFERS YOU EVERY FACILITY OF AN UP-TO-DATE FINANCIAL INSTITUTION. LET US TELL YOU HOW WE CAN SERVE YOU. 4 Per Cent Interest on Time and Savings Deposits