Last Friday was the Chinese New Year's Day, but it lost its pep for the celestials, as no fire-crackers were allowed to be set off. The small boy, who has been deprived by the stern mandate of the law, from his favorite diversion on Fourth of July, will readily sympathize with them.

James B. Walker of Dodge, who has been very ill with the flu and pneumonia for a number of weeks has recovered sufficiently under Dr. Adix's care to be moved this week up to the terrace addition. His wife who is a trained nurse, deserves great credit for her careful nursing during his illness.

Edward Shearer has moved to his farm in Springwater and will continue to raise thorough-bred cows, hogs and chickens. The Springwater people may be proud of having such a man as Mr. Shearer in their vicinity, as he is a great Grange worker, and is always ready to help in church and school activities. We feel that Garfield's loss is Springwaters gain.
