Some Valentine

The best of all valentines was received by Mrs. R. C. Deming in Portland, last Friday morning, being an eight pound baby boy, whom the stork delivered in the pink of condition. Unfortunately Mr. Deming being in France, was not present to welcome the new arrival, but Mrs. J. W. Reed is in attendance on her daughter and grandson. The NEWS extends the heartiest congratulations to all concerned.

No Kick For Him

In these days of universal prohibition, J. C. Duus of Garfield eschews everything with a kick in it, whether male, machine or Milwaukee's famous specialty. Last Saturday while cranking his Ford, it backfired like a Missouri mule and badly wrenched his arm, so that he had to obtain medical assistance. During Sunday he thought the matter over and Monday came straight to town and traded his recalcitrant machine for a Chevrolet.

Some interesting articles and correspondence crowded out this week, will appear in next issue.

We hear that word has been received from Washington, announcing the death of Connie Cockrelne on October 11th, in action.

We hear that M. C. Adlon is about to set up a jewelry store where C. W. Devore had his offices. This will supply a long felt want as Mr. Adlon is an old experienced jeweler.

Those subscribing for the News during the week are: E. R. Byford, Peter Ericksen, John Ely of Estacada, Floyd H. Ewalt of Oregon City and W. M. Wade of Olex, Ore.

Admirers of Mark Twain will be glad to hear that his popular character "Tom Sawyer" will appear Saturday night at the Star theatre. The role will be taken by Jack Pickford which should insure a large attendance. If you have the blues or that tired feeling, go and enjoy a hearty laugh at the adventures of this mirth provoking boy.
