Job Work

The NEWS is prepared to do all kinds of ordinary job printing. Usually we reserve Saturdays for this work, unless the order is a rush one. Owing to the high cost of paper we do not carry a heavy stock, preferring to order from Portland when required. Those wanting job work done, should hand in the order at the beginning of the week, so we can have time to get the stock by Saturday.

We will print 500 envelopes 6 3-4 for $3.00 or a 1000 for $5.50. Letter heads 8 1-2x11 500 for $3.75 or a 1000 for $6.25. Butter wrappers 50 for 75c, 100 for $1.25. All work will be done in a first manner.

Those who are inclined to doubt any present-day war-time application in the writings in the Bible should read the following passage taken from the eleventh verse of the eleventh chapter of the eleventh book: "Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant."

The same New York Bible student who found that verse also figured that the armistice was signed at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month of the year. Those who have belief in the relation of numbers and their meaning, may find some importance to the many elevens. It is, at least unusual. The Portland Spectator.

A Good Showing

To the Editor: With an enrollment of 28 pupils, Currinsville school is making good progress. The patrons and school board show a lively interest in their school, and the children themselves are hustlers.

The work of the Industrial club has made a good start with Ruth Whitehead as president, Emma Jones as vice-president and Floyd Hale as secretary. Two fine walnut trees have been planted in the front lawn, and the children are contemplating making flower beds.
