

8--BARGAIN DAYS--8

Commencing Friday and Saturday and Lasting
Eight Days we Will Sacrifice the Following Articles, and Many More Too Numerous to Mention

HARNESS OIL
POULTRY TONIC
HAND SEPARATOR OIL PAINTS
PAINT BRUSHES
POWDERED LIME AND SULPHUR

SOAP
OAT FLOUR
BARLEY FLOUR
RICE FLOUR
PEARL MEAL
CORN GRITS
CANNED CORN

MACARONI
EXTRACTS
TOILET PAPER
CANNED BEEF
BUTCHER KNIVES
PARING KNIVES
POCKET KNIVES

SCISSORS
PLIERS
O-CEDAR MOP
O-CEDAR MOP POLISH
POTATO MASHERS
CHOPPING KNIVES
WHISK BROOMS

This is YOUR Opportunity to Save MONEY!

We Believe "A Satisfied Customer is the Best Advertisement."

THE WALTER GIVENS COMPANY, Incorporated.

LEE S. BRONSON H. C. REID MILTON D. EVANS

ELWOOD NEWS

Omitted last week.

Walter Cox sold a bunch of sheep to Beattie at Beaver Creek.

George and Barney Granatzki were out from Portland Saturday.

Otis Vallen made a trip to Subel last Friday, also visited his sister Mrs. Nona Ginther.

Mr. and Mrs. Alder and children of Vancouver, Wash. are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Brown.

Charles Freeman has an auto-truck which he is using in delivering ties to Beaver Creek. Homer Rowan is driving it for him.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the Bittner home, Saturday evening, in honor of Mrs. Ella Rotter and her husband, Harry Bittner, wife and baby who were at the parental home for the week end.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Ray Woodle recently purchased some few head of sheep from Mrs. Clutch.

Miss Nettie Woodle of Salem, was visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle, last Sunday.

Miss Iva Udell of Dover, was staying at the home of her uncle, R. B. Gibson, for a few days last week.

Roy Douglass recently bought a beef cow of John Affolter, butchered it and sold it out among the farmers.

Will Douglass made a business deal with Mr. Huxley of Garfield on Saturday; buying 32 head of sheep and 6 lambs, giving 3 cows on the trade.

Helen Wooster has been ill the past few days.

Phil Standish is back again after several days' absence.

Noel Sarver is here from Portland looking after his farm in Currinsville.

Those subscribing for the News this week were: J. W. Howard, E. D. Miller, R. S. Coop, Estacada, and James Smith of Eagle Creek.

While Mrs. E. S. Womer was watching her husband saw wood Tuesday, her hand caught under a piece of wood and she had the misfortune to lose two fingers.

Mr. Basset is here from Grand Dalles, Wash.

G. Rein of Portland was here Wednesday, making preparations to open a shoe repairing shop in the former office of C. W. Devore, next Monday. He is an expert shoemaker and fits shoes to crippled feet. Formerly he worked for Meier, Frank, and in Knight's mammoth shoe store.

Special Meeting.

A special School meeting for Dist. 108 will be held in the High School building, Thursday March 20th, at 7:30 p. m., as per adjournment, to give the committee time to finish the District's books and make report.

H. V. Adix.
Walter Givens.
Bert Finch.
Directors.

Dependable

"Red Crown" is straight-distilled, all-refinery gasoline. Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)

The Gasoline of Quality

J. L. LACEY, Special Agent, Park Place, Oregon.