LOCAL BREVITIES AND NEWS ITEMS

Dan Fellows was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

L. H. Ewalt has moved from Oregon City to Gervais, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard of Springwater were in town Tuesday.

Mrs. E. D. Allen of Marmot was visiting relatives Sunday, she had just returned from a trip to Tacoma, Wash.

L. A. Chapman has a new automobile hearse of the latest style. He used it for the first time at the funeral of the late Henry Dillon.

Sam L. Beary of Portland was in town Wednesday on business cencerning some property which he owns here. The NEWS acknowledges a pleasant call from from him.

The bank statement shows that this institution is seventy-five per cent stronger in all its departments than it was a year ago. What does this indicate, but that there is a substantial backing to this community!

We feel much encouraged when we receive statements from subscribers in remitting renewals, like these: Writes one from Pennsylvania, "I enjoy receiving your paper each week." Another from the eastern part of the state says "Please send me the Eastern Clackamas News for another year. I feel that I cannot get along without the home paper."

S, E. Wooster paid a hurried visit to the county seat on Tuesday.

Joe Wiederholder of Bissel, was in town Wednesday and renewed his subscription to this paper.

A. Morrow of Portland, formerly a livery stable owner in Estacada was calling on friends last Friday.

M. C. Adlon is fitting up the room back of the Pharmacy, which faces on 2nd Street for a jewelry store.

Misses Mary and Katie Murphy of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week-end with their aunt Mrs. C. E. Surfus and their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Allen.

Sheriff Wilson was in town Friday investigating complaints about various thefts and depredations which have occured round about the country during the winter.

Born in Garfield, March 12th, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shriner, a baby daughter. Both mother and daughter are doing well with Dr. McCall in attendance.

The Reed Auto Co. reports the following sales made recently: To W. H. Holder a Ford touring car, Bronson and Evans a Ford roadster, Ed. Ficken a three ton truck.

Lieutenant William Dale spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dale. He has just been honorably discharged from the service at Camp Lewis. After settling up some business matters, he will look up a location to practice as a dentist.

Mrs. T. J. Reagan wrote a paper on tithing which she first read at the Methodist Church Sunday evening two weeks ago, at a meeting in connection with the Centenary campaign. proved to be so excellent and convincing that she has been requested to read it at other Centenary meetings elsewhere.

As will be seen by a notice in this issue, a notable array of Methodist divines will meet at the church Friday for an all day session. This is to stimulate by information the Centenary campaign which is now engaging the energies of the Methodist body. Its object is to raise a hundred million dollars for the development of their post war work, and to put all their enterprises on a substantial basis. This Church is to be commended for its zeal and activity. Its leaders are men of vision who are not afraid to launch out into the deep and let down their nets for a draught, even when conditions seem most unfavorable.

Col. S. Kilgore went to Portland Monday morning.

Al. Linsey of Scobie, Mont., another former Estacadan visited town Friday.

Mrs. Charles J. Pimm arrived here from Bull Run Sunday and returned Monday.

Master Robert McConnell has been sick the past week with acute stomach trouble.

Phil Standish came up Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Henry Dillon on Monday.

Clarence A. Hudson of Boring was in town Monday morning and called at the NEWS office Monday on business.

R. G. Palmeteer of Garfield, paid the NEWS office a pleasant call Friday morning. He gave us some very interesting accounts of the early days in this neck of woods. He came here in 1853 when only 8 years old. The old gentleman has a keen memory of most an extinct species in Orethose times when this vicinity gon, then abounded and a man was all forest and only three or could go out and get deer in about four widely scattered families twenty minutes. At this distance around. There were some com- those days appear very romantic pensations however, people were but we wonder how we would enmuch more sociable and the joy them now after being accustwoods were alive with game, omed to modern conveniences and The white tailed deer which is al- ways.

Oregon Poultry Farm

Phil. Marquam, Proprietor

TRAP-NESTED SINGLE COMB WHITE LEGHORNS "BARRON STRAIN"

Tom Barron has won sixteen Egg Laying Contests in AMERICA and

-No other strain has approached this record!

-Every Bird on Oregon Farm is trapnested.

-Settings from high producing trap-nested Tom Barron hens, $1.50 up.

Pedigreed Cockerels $5.00 each. Eggs $9.00 per 100

Oregon Poultry Farm

(Located one mile out of Estacada, Oregon, on Garfield road.)

The Difference

Between the young man who saves part of his income and the one who spends it all, is the difference, in ten years, between the man whoowns a business and the one who works for him. Start an account with $1 or more.

Our Business

Is to help the people of this community in the saving and the wise investment of their money. Call and talk it over with us.

Estacada State Bank

Four Per Cent Interest on Time and Savings Deposits.