GARFIELD ITEMS

Mrs. Hazel Alf has returned to Portland after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Tracy.

Edwin Burlingame and family of Fairview, spent the week end at the home of his sister, Mrs. L. J. Palmateer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Palmateer are the great grandparents of a great grandson born at the home of Ira Wills of Fairview.

Walter Snuffin and wife with J. B. Robertson and wife, visited at the home of his brother, Frank Snuffin of Lents Sunday.

VIOLA BREEZES

Died at her home in Viola on Thursday evening, April 24th, Mrs. Louise Miller. She was born at Ulm, Germany, Dec. 26, 1840. Married to Carl C. Miller, May 20, 1860, from Germany they came to Kansas, Riley Co. in 1866, where they made their home for 18 years, and from there to the home at Viola, where they have resided for the past 33 years, of a family of 16 children, 10 are left to mourn a loving mother, there are 17 grand-children and 4 great grand-children living. Mr. A. Demoy conducted the services at the church at 1 o'clock, Sunday. She was laid to rest in the cemetery on the hill, near her home. A large number of friends and neighbors paid their last respects to the departed. The sons and daughters left are C. C. Miller and Wm. Miller of Portland; Robert and Adolph of George; Raymond and Edward at home; Mrs. Annie Stone, Highland; Mrs. Hamilton, Viola; Mrs. E. Coberly and Alfred Miller of California.

LOWER EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cogswell are visiting their brother B. N. Cogswell of Eagle Creek. They are residents of Portland.

Mrs. Rose Suter went as a delegate from the George, Springwater and Eagle Creek churches to the Presbyterian convention in Portland.

James Rush while in Portland, Saturday, met with what could have been a severe accident. His son Dick was driving the machine while in the main part of the city, the steering gear became defective and the result was that the machine struck a large truck. Luckily all who were in the party escaped uninjured.

The Rev. Father Hogan was in town Thursday afternoon. He reports that he has finished building a beautiful little church at Sandy, which will be consecrated about the end of May. He also said he was fixing up the room in the old Park hotel here, where he holds services, and hopes this season to get a church building under way. He celebrated mass and performed other spiritual functions for the members of his faith in this vicinity last Sunday. He expects in the near future to arrange for a semi monthly visitation instead of once a month.
