ESTACADA'S SECOND CHAUTAUQUA WILL BE HELD JUNE 3, 4 AND 5

The Chautauqua committee met Monday night, to confer with J. J. King the advertising representative of the Radcliffe Chautauqua association. The meeting was called to order by the chairman M. B. Signs with H. C. McCormick as secretary.

The dates for the assembly are June 3, 4 and 5, and Mrs. E. E. Saling was appointed to see the R. R. Co. about securing the use of the Park Pavilion. The program this year which is given below, hails the dawn of a new day. The quickening of American ambition following the war against autocracy, is to be seized while fervor is at a white heat, and shaped into a nation wide crusade for Education. The lectures are charged with vim, novelty, humor, dash and big hearted enthusiasm.

Committees were appointed to see about the advance sale of season tickets, which will be placed at $2.00 for adults, high school pupils and children under fifteen, $1.00. Single admissions will cost 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

The NEWS is intensely interested in the promotion of this enterprise as the Chautauqua is an agency powerful for educational, cultural and moral uplift in a community. Wherever it has been tried and received sufficient support to insure its success, the verdict has been overwhelming in its favor. It is a sad commentary on the present day spirit, that while a vaudeville show will without effort draw a crowd, an entertainment which is also instructive and will confer a lasting benefit, has to be vigorously pushed and advertised to secure patronage. We bespeak for the ticket solicitors a most cordial response from the public. Those who have the true interests of our community at heart, will not

Of all sad words of pen or tongue,
The saddest are these: "I wish
I'd gone."

Thus spoke negligent Christian Endeavorers who failed to attend the convention held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Oregon City.

From the opening song service on Friday night, led by Dr. Prudden, to the closing sermon on Sunday night, there was no waning of enthusiasm and interest. About 30 out-of-town delegates were registered, and the local churches were well represented.

"The War!—What War?" was the theme of the convention and this thought was carried throughout. On Friday night Dr. S. W. Seeman delivered the first of a series of four Bible lessons, on the Book of Ephesians. Dr. Seeman's lectures were highly instructive and inspiring. The revolutionary movements, now being carried on by the different denominations, were explained by the ministers and laymen of Oregon City churches. The theme of the evening was summed up by Dr. Crocker in this question, "Are you laymen of the church working as hard at christianity as you expect your minister to?"

At the business session, held on Saturday morning, the following county officers were elected for the new year: Shirlie Swallow, President; Chas. N. Harlow, Vice-Pres.; Gladys Trimble, Secretary; Weldone Quge, Treasurer; Dr. S. W. Seeman, Rev. E. E. Gillert, Rev. W. E. Bean, Advisors.

Our State President, Walter Meyer, gave a snappy talk, and extended to all an urgent invitation to attend the late C. E. Convention in Portland, June 1919.

The afternoon session was full of interest, and up to the mark
