CHAPTER VI

"HIGH VOLTAGE"

The drowning diver is rescued from his perilous position through the heroism of Helen Thurston.

Pitts plans to secure the box containing Thurston family archives from "The East Express" and to turn its contents to his own use. Pitts discovers that the Mountain King Mine, a Thurston property, has become suddenly valuable.

Thurston, who has been on a sick bed, is still unable to talk but he manages to convey to Helen the information concerning the mine. Helen prevents "Haelip" from getting possession of the box.

W. E. Linn,
Manager.

In spite of the rain there were a number picnicing in the Park, Sunday.

S. H. Gruber of Portland, arrived Saturday to go over to his ranch in Garfield.

Mrs. H. B. Van Duzer and Mr. J. M. Van Duzer, of Portland, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. Morse on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn of Roseburg, who have been visiting their daughter Mrs. L. A. Wells, have returned to their home.

Mrs. F. Jorg arrived Saturday from Portland, to pass the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Possen and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hillman.

An electric crew was putting up heavy cables to connect the garages with heavier power than that hitherto furnished by the light line.

After less than two years of married life, Mrs. Ida M. Stubbe is suing William Stubbe for divorce, on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Mrs. A. K. Morton and her son Robert were weekend visitors at the E. W. Bartlett home. Mrs. Morton returned to Portland Sunday but her son remained to the following day.

We are sorry that the firemen's ball was not better patronized. In case of a fire their worth soon would be apparent, as well as the importance of providing them with proper equipment.

Harry Kitching of Currinsville who joined the Canadian forces in June 1919, and sailed the following month, is reported as being about to start for home. He will bring a bride with him, for he was married to an English Red Cross nurse last February 19th.

The Rev. Father Hogan was here for services on Sunday. His new church at Sandy will be dedicated on the 15th of June. He is a marvel in making a dollar do the work of two or even three. The church which is valued at $7,000, will be consecrated free of debt.

Take Notice

On account of the graduation exercises, the show at the Family Theatre will commence at seven this evening, instead of the usual hour. Next Thursday because of the Chatauqua there will be no performance. On Saturdays the pictures will be run as ordinarily.

W. E. Linn deserves the thanks of the Chatauqua committee for agreeing not to open the Family Theatre on Thursday, June 5th, so as not to interfere with the Chatauqua.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Adix were delighted to see them Tuesday evening, when they came over to attend the school exercises in which their son Victor gave the address of welcome.

BASEBALL

What promises to be an exciting game, will take place on the school grounds, on Saturday, when the High School base ball team will play Molalla. All fans should be there to back our boys.
