WAS IT WORTH WHILE?

Was it worth while to have the Chautauqua here? As one who has had to put up his share of the deficit, which was more than was quite agreeable to our pocket book, yet we answer with an emphatic YES. And we are willing to stand by it another year.

Why? Because the educational effect of the Chautauqua, is immensely valuable to our community. The bane of a small town is its restricted outlook, which cramps the imagination and stifles enterprise. The Chautauqua helps extend our horizon, by bringing us in touch with outside thought and larger ideals. Those who attended the lectures and conferences received a mental stimulus and a broader vision, which amply repaid them for their time, effort and expense. If such stimulus and vision could become more diffused in the community, the benefits would soon be manifested in improved community spirit and uplift. This is vitally needed here, for we are too prone to inertia. We use up our energies in bickerings and petty quarrels which are all the more accentuated owing to too much propinquity, a condition from which the Chautauqua will do much to deliver us. For such reason, the objection that it would be better to keep the money at home, falls to the ground, because the Chautauqua gives us more than our money's worth, in furnishing us a much needed something which we do not obtain from within, but for which we must look outside.

While the reconstruction measures failed of adoption, yet the market roads bill and Roosevelt Highway having carried, will provide all the work necessary for giving employment to all who need it. What with scarcity of farm help at high wages, and in industrial lines also, there will be no excuse for an able bodied man remaining idle.

Lighting Values

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of authority of General Laws of Oregon for 1919, Chapter 181, effective May 29, 1919, entitled,

To require owners, lessees and operators of places of employment to provide emergency and general natural and artificial lighting; defining how the minimum of light shall be established; requiring the commissioner of labor and inspector of factories and workshops to enforce the same; and providing a penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of this act.

That to carry out the provisions of the act; to establish certain minimum values for lighting, and to arrive at what values shall be used in the schedule of minimum lighting, and such other rules as shall determine definitely what shall constitute compliance with the provisions of this act, a commission of three persons has been appointed, namely, F. C. Knapp, President Peninsula Lumber Co. representing the manufacturing interests, Vern H. Haybarker, representing the operating electrical workers, and F. H. Murphy, an electrical engineer, who will on the 28th day of June 1919, at Room 501 Court House, Portland, at 2 P. M. o'clock, hold a public meeting to give hearing to those interested and to be advised in order to establish, to rearrange or readjust the schedule of lighting values and rules.

C. H. Gram,
Labor Commissioner.
