Dempsey is now the "champ" and Willard the "chump." But as the latter was guaranteed $100,000 win or lose, no doubt he can bear his defeat with equanimity. In spite of our boasted civilization, gladiatorial contests are just as attractive as they were two thousand years ago.

Hats off to the plucky crew of the mammoth dirigible, the R-34. While obliged as a matter of precaution, to summon help, yet she managed to reach her goal on her own resources. Her supply of petrol was almost exhausted on arrival. This marks the beginning of a new era in transatlantic travel. The dangers of the air routes are probably not greater than by water, and when people become accustomed to the idea, it will probably be largely patronized in fair weather, on account of the novelty and the time saved. Whether it will eliminate nausea is doubtful, as the motion of the waves, is as trying as that of the ocean, we should think.

The War Loan Organization of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District has just been advised that hereafter War Savings Stamps may be converted into Savings Certificates of $100 and $1000 denominations.

The holder of a sufficient number of Thrift Stamps may now exchange them for a $5 War Savings Stamp and in turn the holder of twenty of the $5 War Savings Stamps may convert them into a $100 Savings Certificate or the holder of two hundred of the $5 Stamps may turn them in for a $1000 Savings Certificate.

Conversion may be made at all first and second class postoffices and at all banks and trust companies that have qualified as agents of the second class. The Treasury Savings Certificates are to be issued in registered form and will bear the names of the owners. They will yield four per cent compounded quarterly as do the War Savings Stamps. The limit of the individual investment still remains at $1000.
