CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and help during our recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Keilendonk,
Mr. and Mrs. Waters,
Mrs. Lena Underwood,
Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ames,
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jones.

That B. O. Boswell is constantly on the job, is shown by the mileage indicator on his Ford machine. This shows a record of 53,114 miles for a little over 3 years.

The funeral of the late W. H. Kellendonk was largely attended last Saturday. Elder Jones of Portland, a minister of the Latter Day Saints of which denomination Mr. Kellendonk was a member, officiated. After the services at the house were concluded, the body was by express direction of the deceased, taken to Portland where it was cremated.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jubb returned Monday from the Chataqua at Gladstone. Mr. Jubb says they had a great time. He was much taken with Private Peat's story of his experiences in the war. Private Peat was wounded and lay for two days in the field before he was rescued. It must be acknowledged that those who went in at the beginning of the war, suffered the most hardships, as everything was disorganized and run in a hap hazard fashion.
