THE REGISTRAR, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis

A party consisting of R. F. Snyder, wife and son, J. O. Bounds and family Mulino, J. F. Snyder and Mrs. Theo. Har ders, leaves Sunday morning for Yaquina Bay. They will go in their cars by way of Corvallis and will be gone about a week.

Look up the ad. of Roy Meyers of Eagle Creek in this issue. He is representing the Farm Utilities Co. of Portland, and wishes to let the public know that the water system advertised, is installed in his house, and he will be glad to show it there in operation to any one wishing to see it.

J. A. Somers has gone to Kansas on a business trip and will be absent for some time.

Mrs. F. W. Gartner of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. E. E. Saling at the Estacada.

Mrs. W. A. Heylman accompanied Mrs. Mae Belknap who has been visiting her for two weeks, back to Portland Wednesday evening.

Joel B. Bowman of Upper Garfield has an apiary of over sixty hives. He reports a good honey season and to support his statement, he has delivered a number of cases containing 24 pounds each, to local merchants. Bee-keeping to those who have a natural love for bees, is a most fascinating pursuit, and in good seasons very profitable.

Boiling Points

Boiling points are vaporizing points. The full, uniform chain of boiling points is necessary in high quality gasoline. Red Crown has them. Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.
