Fred Jorg was an Estacada visitor from Portland Monday.

Mrs. Burt Moore had her parents and sister from Portland, last Sunday as guests for the day.

Miss Leila Howe arrived home Friday evening from Monmouth where she has been attending a session of the summer school.

Dr. Harry E. Morgan and wife of Wasco, Oregon, returned to their home last Thursday after a month's visit with relatives and friends at this place.

Mrs. W. A. Heylman was a Portland week-end visitor.

W. W. Dillon, who is a Y. M. C. A. secretary in Portland, spent the week-end with his family in Garfield.

Ernest Ryneg had the misfortune to cut his hand with an axe last Friday. Dr. McCall took five stitches to sew it up.

S. H. Gruber of Portland, came up Saturday to spend the week-end on his ranch in Garfield, and to see how his crop was progressing.

Lyle Wagner and sister, Miss Ida, returned home Friday from an extended vacation, spent on the Oregon coast where they visited various resorts in Coos, Curry and Clatsop counties.

Mrs. Emily Lady, formerly of Estacada, now of The Dalles, Oregon, paid a short visit to friends here Saturday and Sunday. Her daughter Virginia is spending a few weeks at Newport, Ore., with friends.

Mrs. Sadie Van Buren of La Grande and Mrs. C. F. Dittebrand of Spokane, spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. E. W. Bartlett. Mrs. Dittebrand was accompanied by her little twin daughters, Catherine and Marlowe.

A. G. Ames returned from the head of Roaring River Friday. He is evidently as expert with his rod as with his gun, as he brought home a long string of mountain trout. We express our thanks for a generous and delicious sample of the same.

C. F. Howe left for Brighton Beach Hot Springs in Marion county Friday, where he will remain for two weeks taking the baths and amusing himself with fishing. His son Ted accompanied him as far as Portland where he remained till Saturday morning.

Mrs. R. H. Currin spends most of her time with Mr. Currin, who is employed over near Bull Run. They have a tent with all camping conveniences, in a most beautiful location, and both enjoy the outing. They go to and from their home at Currinsville in their machine.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephens started in their new Buick car Saturday afternoon for Vancouver, B. C. They intend to go from there over to Victoria and then back to this side, visiting in Rainier Park and from there to Olympia, Wash., on their return home. This will constitute a most enjoyable vacation trip and we hope that they will derive much benefit from it, besides having a royal good time.

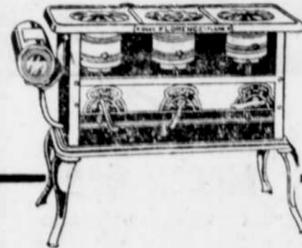

J. K. Ely was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Corp. Sam Barr and family have been in Estacada for several days, visiting at the home of his father J. H. Barr.
