Your Satisfaction is Our Success

There will be no services at the Methodist Church Sunday, owing to the absence of the pastor.

Reed & Shibley believe, like all up-to-date business men, in advertising. They have this week five different ads. of machines and articles for which they are agents. Look them up, they contain interesting and valuable information.

The car of Arthur Perry of Garfield, ran amuck Tuesday afternoon. It was being driven by his daughter up 2nd street when the steering gear went out of commission. The consequence was that it ran foul of a telephone pole opposite the store of N. C. Adlon. The front right wheel was broken and the axle badly wrenched. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Mrs. W. M. Yonce of Oregon City was in town last week.

Mrs. Clarence O Neal and children arrived from Alaska yesterday.

Miss Cleavinger of Grants Pass, was the guest a few days last week of her friend, Mrs. J. M. Melton.

Mrs. J. W. Reed is touring the Yellowstone Park and other points, in company with her two sisters and brother.
