

LOCAL BREVITIES AND NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Morgn of Sellwood, were guests of the editor and his wife Sunday.

The Rev. J. F. Dunlop and son Herbert went to Gresham Saturday to take in the fair.

Mrs. Carrie Coos of Hillsboro, Ore., is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Walter of Currinsville.

George Weatherby spent a couple of days in Portland last week, returning Friday afternoon.

Mrs. C. F. Howe, Miss Leila Howe and Ted Howe were Gresham and Portland visitors Saturday.

Miss Ruth Saling, who is attending Miss Decker's business college in Portland, was home for the week end.

Otis Wagner came home Friday for the week end from Sellwood hospital. When the weather is fine he begins to feel like himself, but on cloudy and wet days his respiration is affected.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Standish and children were week end guests of Mrs. Standish's mother, Mrs. M. H. Evans. They came down Friday from Portland. While here the former editor of the News and Henry Heiple went off on a fishing trip.

Mrs. J. E. Stubbs is again clerking in her father's, Wm. Dale's, store.

John Paga and family, with Miss Gladys Kandle motored to Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. Burt Moore had as week end guests her mother Mrs. Richmond, and sister Miss Nell, of Portland.

J. W. Baker of Portland, a former game warden, spent the week end with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cooper.

The bed of Japanese lilies in P. M. Wagner's garden, is a joy to behold, and their fragrance is as sweet as their beauty.

F. Hebding of Perrydale, Ore., who has been visiting his sister Mrs. C. A. Jacques of Garfield, left for his home Tuesday.

Miss Bertha Hillman has gone to Corvallis, to enter the O. A. C., where she will take the commercial and musical courses.

Dave Eschleman and wife and little son left on Sunday for a two weeks vacation. They will visit relatives in Salem and Corvallis and other points near there and Mr. Eschleman expects to do some hunting in that vicinity.

A. C. Cooper went to Portland Saturday. He informs us that he has six boxes of a new kind of crab apple, the French seedling. The tree bore for the first time this year. He claims they make the best jelly he has known.

Paul J. Holm of Garfield, has purchased an Avery tractor with a Grand Detour Jr. sulky plow. The machines arrived from Portland last week and Saturday morning he was driving them through the streets on his way home.

John Ficken, who went to stay with his son at Bison, Kan., about two months ago, returned last Saturday. He found Kansas altogether too warm and is convinced that this vicinity is the place to live in. He will move on to a ranch in Viola.

Mrs. A. E. Sparks entertained a number of ladies Friday afternoon. The time was pleasantly passed in visiting, guessing contests and partaking of delicious refreshments. Mrs. Sparks' skill in the culinary line is well known among her friends.

Ken Bartlett left Monday for Eugene, where he will reenter the University, his course having been interrupted by his joining the army for war service. He will be warmly welcomed, not only for himself, but also because he will add considerable strength to the football eleven.

E. S. Womer went to Portland Saturday.

Merton Weatherby, who has been in Portland for two weeks, returned home Saturday evening.

The state fair is on this week at Salem.

Mrs. Mary Whiting and Mrs. A. W. Botkin of Garfield, returned Saturday afternoon from a visit in Portland.

Are You Ready to Put in Your Fall Crops

We have a complete line of OLIVER PLOWS and REPAIRS for same. Also

HARROWS, DISCS, SEEDERS AND GRAIN DRILLS

How About that New Heater or Range for this winter?

We have

20 NEW MODELS

to select from, ranging in price from $1.50 up.

Come in and select yours while there is a good assortment.

BERT H. FINCH

HARDWARE FURNITURE IMPLEMENTS

The time to save

Is when we are making money. In this year of prosperity, it behooves us all to save something to help in the less fortunate times.

Four Per cent Interest on Time and Savings Deposits.

Estacada State Bank

"Safety and Service."

The Family Theatre

THURSDAY NIGHT, SEPT. 25th

"The Lamb and the Lion"

By Billy Rhodes

SATURDAY NIGHT SEPT. 27th

"The Exquisite Thief"

By Priscilla Dean

Thursday Night, Oct. 2

"The Sage Brush

Hamlet"

By William Desmond

"The Turn in the Road"

is drawing near.

OCTOBER 9th

ADMISSION:

Adults, 22c. War tax 3c

Children 10c. War tax 1c.

W. E. Linn, Manager.