THE THREE CROSSES

The iron cross is black as death and hard as human hate;
The wooden cross is white and still and whispers us, "Too Late,"
But the Red Cross sings of life and love and hearts regenerate.

The iron cross is a boastful cross and marks the war-mad slave;
The wooden cross is a dumb, dead cross and marks a shallow grave,
But the Red Cross reaches out its arms to solace and to save.

The iron cross is a kaiser's cross and narrow is its clan;
The wooden cross is a soldier's cross and mourns its partisan,
But the Red Cross is the Cross of One who served his fellowman.
—Edmond Vance Cooke.

Invest a dollar in Red Cross and cut happiness coupons the rest of the year.

Enjoyable Evening

The Tennis Club enjoyed a pleasant evening at the Estacada hotel last night. Cards, music and visiting comprised the evening's entertainment and a substantial lunch was served.

SCHOOL NOTES

The lecture given in the High School Auditorium, Monday night by Gordon J. Taylor, proved a grand success. We are certain it was enjoyed by all who heard it. The High School made over $17.00 by the affair.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

Last Saturday our gridiron stars walloped Benson Tech. 21-6 the game was one of many thrills. Benson got a touchdown in the first quarter but Estacada came back in the second half, and showed a style of fast play that completely baffled her opponents. The same proved that our men have the "stuff" if they only use it. There was a talk of a game Friday, to be played at Vancouver, but Vancouver cancelled it, leaving our manager the job of getting one before Friday.

Rumors are spreading about the Juniors starting their class play. Watch for further announcements.

The Sophomores who for the past week have been contesting against the Freshmen to see who could sell the largest number of tickets for the Taylor lecture, ended with the Sophs on top, having sold nearly twice as many tickets as their opponents. The losers will entertain the winners in the near future.

The Freshman class is again the proud owner of a new member (and man he is,) whose name happens to be Luke Raymond. He is going out for football and is being worked on the scrub line. It is hoped he will prove a good player as he has the necessary weight.

Miss Morrison started hot lunches going at the High School this week and is surely making a grand success of it. Few think now of going home for lunch.

Community Club Meeting

Do not forget the Club meeting at George tomorrow evening. A good program and time are assured. Those having automobiles please notify H. C. Stephens or R. C. Deming, so as to provide transportation for persons wishing to go, who have no cars of their own.

Former Resident of Currinsville Dies

Eugene, October 26.—Lee Y. Congdon of Eugene died suddenly Friday night at the home of his son, R. S. Congdon, in the Lake creek valley. He had been assisting his son in the farm work during the afternoon. Besides his wife he is survived by four children, R. S. Congdon, of Lake Creek valley; Mrs. Julia Smith of Gervais; Miss Bessie Congdon and M. C. Congdon of Eugene.

The deceased formerly owned the farm of George Lovell.

Red Cross Seals

"The people of the state are responding with the enthusiasm and optimism so characteristic of Oregon people to the call of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association for assistance in its annual Red Cross Christmas seal sale to be held December 1, to 10, inclusive," said Floyd E. Dorris, field secretary of the Association, who is in charge of the campaign throughout the state.

"Oregon has $44,260 to raise through the sale of the little Christmas stickers—it is a big sum and will require the assistance of every man, woman and child in the state, but I believe we will have it."

Hymeneal

Two well known young people put it over their relatives and friends by getting married last August 23rd at Hillsboro, and keeping the fact quiet until recently. They are R. L. Starr and Violet Sarver. The bride has been going to school since the term opened which helped to camouflage the situation. It would now be in order for the Domestic Science department to make a bride cake and serve a belated wedding feast. The News extends congratulations and best wishes.

Postmaster and Mrs. Heylman have received word that their son, Major Heylman landed at New York Tuesday and went on to Washington, D. C.

The Red Cross service flag, indicating membership in the great organization of mercy, will appear again in November in every window in the Northwest. In every farmhouse, in every city home, in the cabins of homesteaders, in the huts of fishermen in far Alaska, will appear this symbol of affiliation with the one great organization that knows no politics, no distinction of creed, no high, no low—but unites the hearts of all for service to fellow-men. The window service flag this year has one more stripe than last year, indicating three years of membership in the Red Cross.

Can Demonstrate at Home

Miss Marie Anthony the Home Demonstration agent for this county, can now practice what she preached, as she has recently taken a husband unto herself in Portland. She will now be known as Mrs. Arliss McMillan. The News extends the heartiest congratulations, especially to the groom, for we recall Owen Meredith's lines, "We can live without poetry, music and art, ----- But civilized man cannot live without cooks."

DIED

Mrs. Lydia B. Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Jones, died at the family home in Estacada last Sunday evening. She was born at Madison Bottom, Marion county. She is survived by her parents, who live in Estacada and four brothers. Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Congregational church, and interment took place in the Clackamas cemetery.
