

Early Snow in Eastern Oregon

We may think the recent rains rather monotonous, but we are fortunate not to be in the plight of Eastern Oregon. A letter from La Grande, dated October 31, states that a blizzard was raging and that they had a deep snow. The farmers were feeling blue about their root crops and apples. A letter from Mrs. F. M. Gill of Dufur, written to her father Wm. Dale, says:

"We are holding a funeral this morning, (October 27) shaking down apples and burying them in the snow. It is their only salvation. The temperature dropped to 11 above last night, and froze them thru and thru. We have 500 boxes picked, all the Bananas, Spitz, about half the Jonathans and some Wageners. Have Wolf R. Bailey, Sweets, Royce and most Gearings also in, but there are about 1,000 bushels out in the snow, all the Newtons, Northern Spies, etc. - - Well I must go and sweep the snow under the trees to cover the apples. Have about five inches of the beautiful."

Compare the Chandler With Any Car

CHANDLER checks with the finest high-priced cars in essential features of design and construction. And other cars selling at hundreds of dollars more than the Chandler do not check with Chandler. These are not claims. They are facts, which we can help you to prove quickly.

Chandler is the most fairly priced fine car in the American market. And the faithful pursuance of the Chandler Company's policy to make it that and keep it that, have won for the Chandler Six a place of distinctive leadership.

Sixty thousand Chandler owners testify to the marvels of its motor, to the sturdy strength of its entire chassis, to its comfort, and to the economy of its maintenance.

Mrs. Bateson and daughter Marior, of Portland, were the week-end guests of her sister Mrs. Henry Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Harders visited their sister and brother-in-law of Mulino last Sunday.

Mr. Rendleman and Chris Klinker were transacting business in Portland last Friday.

Ed Harders and Peter Ruhl were also transacting business in Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Pendleman visited Mrs. Theo Harders last Thursday.

The flooded condition of the sewer, caused an overflow in the Cascade Garage. At the auto livery of S. Pesznecker, the mess was worse, because he has not put in yet, a concrete floor.

The Artisan masquerade dance last Saturday night was a great success, there being a large attendance. A number of couples from Portland were present, and most of the dancers wore masks. A Portland orchestra furnished music and at midnight the Artisan ladies served lunch. There were quite a number of very pretty costumes. The lodge cleared $50.00 for its building fund.
