A card from O. O. Bland states that they like California very well, and that they have moved to Santa Cruz, where they have rented a place for a year. Their address is at that city, Rt. 2, Bx. 730.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bullard recently received a letter from their son Clarence, who is in the navy, saying that he sailed on Oct. 27th on the West Chatala from Baltimore, for a cruise of nine months. He will go to Europe and Asia and perhaps around the world.

The many friends of Col. J. G. Kilgore will regret to learn that he had a stroke of paralysis last Friday morning, while standing on the street down town at Gresham. Men standing by prevented him from falling to the sidewalk and took him immediately to his home. Medical aid was summoned and it is said the stroke was a slight one and that he is doing well.

J. D. Stevens of Portland, called at the News office Monday afternoon. He had been to Cur-rinsville looking at a piece of property there and came on to Estacada. He is enthusiastic on good roads and did some boosting for them in Union Co., where at the recent election the bonding proposition was carried 4 to 1. He is thinking of attending a meeting of the Live Wires at Oregon City and telling them of the methods adopted by the Union County boosters, which may serve as a pattern for Clackamas county to follow. Mr. Stevens is a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the G. A. R.

A Portland gas company is advocating the advantages of a gas furnace over those of other kinds and is running a pathetic series of pictorial ads. entitled "The Little Widow." These show her coming home to a cold house and having to go to bed at 9 p. m. because the coal heater had gone out while she was at work. We would suggest the easiest way to remedy matters, would be for her to strike another match.
