

To our many Friends and Patrons:

WE beg to inform you that we have sold out our business interests and stores in Estacada and Viola, to Messrs. U. S. and D. H. Morgan, who have assumed charge of the same. We take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to you for the generous patronage you have given us since we took hold of the business last February. We endeavored to serve you and it is a cause of gratification to us to think that we succeeded, otherwise we would not have received your steady trade.

As our successors are so well and favorably known, words of introduction and recommendation of them on our part, are unnecessary and we are confident that you will extend to them the same measure of generous support you accorded ourselves. Again thanking you,

We are yours truly,

LEE S. BRONSON

"Ever Occur to You?"

says the Good Judge

That it's foolish to put up with an ordinary chew, when it doesn't cost any more to get real tobacco satisfaction.

Every day more men discover that a little chew of real good tobacco lasts longer and gives them real contentment.

There's nothing like it.

The NEWS has a new marble imposing stone to take the place of the old cement one.

"The Other Half" which will appear November 20th at the Family Theater, is a sequel to "To the Turn of the Road" that recently proved such an attractive number.

Mrs. Robert L. Smith sent her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, a box of apples grown on the Smith ranch at Colton, California. They are "The Delicious" variety and are rightly named. They are as pleasing to the palate as they are delightful to the eye, and their fragrance suggests "the perfumes of Araby."
