LOWER EAGLE CREEK

Everest Idaho, having shipped their household goods by Rail Road, and they themselves drove through in their machine from Eagle Creek. It took them from Friday noon till the next Tuesday evening to make the trip.

Carl Brown's death after a three days illness came as a shock to this community. He was operated on for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan Hospital on Thursday and died Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock. He was the eldest son of Sam Brown of Eagle Creek, and saw service with the 91st Division overseas. Returned home May 1st, since that time has been forman for the Roebing & Sons, Portland. Elsewhere is an inscription on the floral offering "From the Loyalty League of Eagle Creek."

The Newton Brunetts have arrived safely at their destination,

It was a great disappointment that owing to the non-arrival of films there could be no show last Thursday night. It was entirely due to gross negligence on the part of the express company. But unfortunately the company only refunds Mr. Linn's actual expenses and not the estimated profits.

Applies for Charter

The meeting of the American Legion last Monday evening was well attended and thirty-one taken in as charter members. An application for a charter has been made to the proper authorities.
