Use Iodine for Wounds.
A cut, a scratch, a bruise, or any similar kind of injury should be painted with iodine. As soon as injured, dip a match with cotton rolled on the end of it in the iodine and paint over the wound without washing. The iodine will kill all germs in the dirt that gets into the wound, while washing only drives the germs farther into the flesh. When painted with iodine, wrap the injured part in a clean cloth for a couple of days.

In place of 300,000 persons who held government securities previous to the war there are now at least twenty million. If this can be raised to 50,000,000 in 1919, the better it will be for the people. Buy W. S. S.

Nothing Large Enough.

The rookies were in line, waiting to be issued some clothing, and the exceedingly fat top sergeant had just asked for a blouse. The quartermaster sergeant hunted all through the piles of clothing but found nothing large enough. Presently an impatient voice from the end of the line rang out: "Give him a shelter half and let's move on."

Beginning, Not Quitting.

"Guess I'll quit work and go fishing," said the man.
"John," said the wife, "if you dig your own bait and honestly try to catch fish, it'll be the hardest work you've done in many a day."

Lodge Testimonial

Resolved: By Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 147 that in the death of Sister Sarah E. Bates the lodge has lost one of its most faithful members.

Our sister was one whom we could associate with our choicest thoughts, because her generous heart gave out a kindly thought a minute, she made the world a whole lot better, just by living in it.

We would like to quote from the writings of Myrtle Reed the following verse:—

"Sometimes into two hearts great enough to hold it and into two souls where it may forever abide there comes the Everlasting Love. It is elemental, like fire and the sea, with the depth and splendor of the surge and the glory of the flame. It makes the world a vast cathedral in which they two may worship and where, even in the darkness, there is the peace which passeth all understanding, because it is of God."

"When the time of parting comes, for there is always that turning in the road, the sadness is not so great because one must go on alone. Life grows beautiful after a time, and even wholly sweet, when a man and a woman have so lived and loved and worked together that death is not 'good bye' but rather 'auf wiedersehen.'"

Resolved: That our charter be in mourning for a period of thirty days and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved husband and spread upon the minutes.
