Burlap Bag His Only Garment

POSTER BASED ON ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN AT ERIVAN, ARMENIA, BY DR. M. S. LITTLEFIELD.

He is only one of 250,000 helpless child victims of Turkish cruelty and oppression in Western Asia. One day just as he stands in the picture this little fellow, with hunger-stricken cheeks, hopeless mouth and fresh, gaunt body, was found wandering in the streets of Igdir, Armenia, by Dr. William S. Littlefield of the Near East Relief. He was taken to a Near East Relief orphanage, where it was found that his only earthly possession was the single garment in which he stood—a worn, patched blanket made from a burlap sack.

"I saw this ragged little fellow on one of the busiest business streets of Erivan, not far from the orphanage," said Dr. Littlefield. "He was wandering aimlessly about and no one was paying the slightest attention to him. I did not pose him; the picture shows just the way he stood when I backed him up against a nearby wall."

*The photograph is the basis of a striking poster now being distributed by the Near East Relief.

"Some Men Don't Know It Yet" says the Good Judge

This class of tobacco gives a man a lot more satisfaction than he ever gets out of ordinary tobacco.

Smaller chew—the good taste lasts and lasts.

You don't need a fresh chew so often. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

GEORGE ITEMS

Twenty-one inches of snow fell at George last Tuesday and Wednesday, which caused the school to be closed for awhile. A few of the George people had the misfortune to sell their potatoes to Jack Frost, for which they did not receive a very good price.

Joe Weiderhold, Ed. Scheel, Roy Maxwell, Mr. Moore and Mr. Vrooman were visiting relatives and friends in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Ruhl and Ed, Harders motored to Gresham last Tuesday returning the same day.

Irene Paulson visited her sister Mrs. H. Joiner last Saturday.

Mrs. J. K. Peterson has been on the sick list, but is now able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards, of Echo, Oregon, visited their sister and brother Mr. and Mrs. J. Paulson last Monday and Tuesday.
