ELWOOD ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Clouse were hosts at a party at their home Saturday night, in honor of Margaret Ireland, sister of Mrs. Clouse, who has been visiting at the Clouse home for the past few weeks. Owing to the severe rain storm, only a few guests were present, but a very enjoyable evening was spent. Games were played and prizes were given. Effie Brown received the booby prize and Walter Cox first prize. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Mrs. Clara Bittner and son Harold are visiting in Oregon City with Mrs. Bittner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rotter.

Miss Clara Meilike, who has been with her brother, Carl Meilike at Oregon City, has returned home.

Mike Rydzeroski had the misfortune to lose one of his work horses recently. It means quite a loss as it was a fine young animal.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bishop spent several days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rotter and W. T. Henderson were business callers at the county seat Saturday.

There is to be a box social and program at the Elwood school house, Saturday evening, March 20, to raise money for an organ for the school.

The Salvation Army employment bureau last year found employment for 63,889 men outside of the Industrial homes.

Notice!

When leaving goods at 183 First St. for delivery to Estacada, please mark where they are to be left, otherwise it will be confusing. Any Portland business firm will deliver goods to the above address without extra charge, why then lug your heavy packages and be bothered with them for the small sum the undersigned will charge?
