IF YOUR HOGS ARE FAT AND READY FOR MARKET

And you want to get the very top price for them, and weighed at home, then call

M. J. KERKES

I also buy all kinds of live stock, fat or breeders, and I do not overlook the fresh cows. Notify Henry Githens at Currinsville, if you have any livestock for sale or call me at

Tabor 4123

at 354 E 54 St., Portland, Oregon.

To get the most money out of hogs sell them on hoof.

Hogs!

Did you ever stop to think who it is that buys most of the live hogs, and why?--there is a reason, think it over.

Call or write any time for prices on stock.

Fred C. Bartholomew.
Mgr. Hog Special.

Mary Pickford has married the man with the smile. How long will the smile last? Some smiles have a kick in them.

WILCOX BROS.

OF THE

CASCADE GARAGE

Wish to announce that they now have their shop under new management and are able to take care of any expert mechanical work. Ignition troubles and piston fitting a specialty.

All work turned out under the supervision of our new shop foreman, Mr. Dean, is fully guaranteed.

We also have installed a new Battery Charging machine, which will take care of a large number of batteries at one time, so we can assure our customers of prompt and sufficient service at all times. Mr. Vernie Daus, who is an expert battery repairing man, has charge of the battery department.

M. E. Church

The Easter program at this church, will begin at 10:30 a. m.

C. P. Boyer of Newberg was in town this week.

T. C. Jubb is suffering from cardiac asthma. His physician, Dr. R. Morse, ordered him to bed and to keep perfectly quiet. His condition is somewhat better.

Krigbaum's confectionery has been refurbished with paint and paper. The interior arrangement has been changed some, which seems to add to the space of the room. The painting and papering were done by J. R. Hughes, while George Pointer did the sign work on the windows. Miss Lucy Krigbaum is assisting her brother in waiting on the customers.
