

"Here's Something for You to Remember"
says the Good Judge

And any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you so.

You get a lot more satisfaction in a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than in a big chew of the old kind.

And it costs less to chew. The full rich, real tobacco taste lasts so much longer.

ESTACADA

GRESHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Givens of Kent, Ore., paid a flying visit to Estacada Thursday morning to call on a few friends. They drove up from Portland. Mr. Givens reports that business is fine and that they have all been very well this winter, except his mother, who finds the altitude at Kent too high for her. He was taking her to a lower one in the valley for treatment.

Mrs. Milt Marshall is doing very well at St. Vincent's hospital, but it will be two or more weeks before she will be able to return home.

A large furniture truck passed through Estacada Friday from Willamette, Ore., heavily loaded with furniture belonging to W. J. Kinney and Otis Lamberson, who recently purchased the Brogden 36 acres in the Garfield fruit district through the S. E. Wooster & Son agency. The new owners of this farm are going into the berry business quite extensively. Garfield people may well be proud to have such enterprising people locate in their district.

R. A. Wilcox is quite ill at the home of his son Roy.

In Iceland Every Mary Has A Lamb

An Iceland Mary and Her Lamb; Also "Little Brother."

Did you ever hear "Mary Had a Little Lamb" in the Iceland tongue? Probably not! So, if it be of interest to you, try this:

Hun Maria attititid lamb
A lagdin hvitt sem anfor
Hvert Maria skoppadi ut eda inn
A eftir lambid for.

Also you may tell the children that Iceland holds the world's record for Marys and pet lambs. Mary is a favorite name there, and about every child has a long haired, affable lamb. These pets are more intelligent than our "Wall Street Lambs."

This particular Mary is a sub-deb of an old Iceland family, now residing in the United States. Some thousands of Icelanders have, in recent years, come to America, settling in North and South Dakota, Minnesota and Washington. They are generally farmers.

The Interchurch World Movement is making a survey of these people in its program to assist the alien to become a citizen in deed as well as word.

THE NEWBERRY CASE

There is much ado being made over the conviction of Senator Newberry, who is now being pilloried in the press. But there seems a confusion of thought, between that of which he is considered guilty and his actual guilt as determined by the court and jury. He was convicted only of exceeding the Michigan legal limit for campaign expenses. The charge of bribery and other corrupt practices were eliminated by the judge. Looking at it in this light, he may not regard his offense with any more sense of moral turpitude than the good wife has who in spite of prohibition laws, makes some currant or dandelion wine for her husband's stomach's sake. It would be interesting to know the actual amount expended directly and indirectly, on behalf of his opponent, Mr. Henry Ford.

Mrs. McWillis has collected the money in the bottles for the babies home. The public is thanked for its generosity.

Manager Linn has on his list for the near future two great attractions, "The Miracle Man" and "Male and Female."
