We are glad to note that Hauser's restaurant is fast increasing its patronage. The meals there are excellent, as well as the service, besides the prices being most reasonable.

The American Legion will give a dance in the park pavilion, Saturday night, April 24. Good music will be furnished as well as good eats. The boys ought to have a good patronage.

A Stutz car was driven into town Sunday by a party of young men from Portland. This is the company whose shares were cornered lately and caused such a furore on the New York stock exchange. Several operators were threatened with bankruptcy, as the man who had the cinch on them refused to listen to a settlement. The stock exchange authorities finally had to take action and force a settlement by threatening to remove the stock from their lists. One operator stood to lose three millions by being caught in the squeeze.
