Notice

Next week we go to press a day earlier, in order to get the papers on the rural routes to their destinations before election day. Advertisers who wish copy changed must send it in by Monday evening.

C. L. Allen lost a tan colored leather coin purse last Friday. Finder please return to him or leave at the NEWS office.

W. H. Holder made a trip to Portland, Saturday.

Postmaster Heylman spent Sunday in Portland.

The editor and his wife were in Portland, Sunday.

Miss Ida Wagner has gone to Tidewater, Or. for the smmer.

This continued fine weather is just right for a general clean up.

Mrs. Burt Moore had as a week end guest, her mother, Mrs. Richmond of Portland.

Miss DeWitt of the High School faculty returned from a visit to Portland Sunday evening.

A. J. Lilburn of Roseburg passed the week end with his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Wells.

Apology is due to our readers for the news matter being so curtailed, but it is absolutely unavoidable owing to the demand for space for political advertising. After the election is over conditions will again become normal.
