Corvallis Students Edit Paper

We have received a copy of the O. A. C. Industrial edition of the Daily Gazette-Times of Corvallis. All the editorial work was done by students under the direction of the professors of the school of journalism. The result is deserving of the highest praise. We wish we could turn over our paper to them for a while. We are sure our readers would welcome the change and it would give our wearied brain a rest and a chance to clear up its be-fogged condition.

London World's Metropolis

The claim has been made that New York City exceeded London in point of population. But the census figures just made public, show this is not the case, and that London is still over a million ahead. The figures are, New York, 5,621,151, London, 6,726,753.

An Honor Well Bestowed

At the session of the National Editorial Association, which was held in Boston last week, E. E. Brodie, editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, was elected vice-president. Hearty congratulations Bro. Brodie.

U. S. Constitutionally Dry

The supreme court of the U. S. has decided that the prohibition amendment and the Volstead act upholding it, are both constitutional. The only resource now for the wets is emigration.

Rural Carrier Examination

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Clackamas, Ore., to be held at Oregon City and Portland on June 26, 1920, to fill the position of rural carrier at Boring and Estacada and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above mentioned county. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, but appointing officers have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles. Women will not be considered for rural carrier appointment unless they are the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines, or the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. Form No. 1977 and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.
